Voters Back Levies; Pelini Resigns

CONGRATULATIONS are exchanged by the three co-chairmen of the "Citizens Who Care Committee" which successfully promoted passage of the two proposed school levy renewals in East Liverpool. Left to right are James Lowe, Leo Lawrence and J. E. Curry.

East Liverpool's school system was assured of adequate operating funds for the start of the 1970 term as a result of approval of two proposed levy renewals Tuesday.

The levy victory was followed today by announcement of the resignation of Assistant School Supt. Carl Pelini who plans to accept an industrial position.

Educators and campaign leaders praised the school district voters for the overwhelming margins by which they renewed two levies totaling 12 mills at the primaries Tuesday, assuring the system of reasonable fiscal stability with $678,600 in local tax funds.

Surprising even the most optimistic supporters, both levies were passed with comfortable margins in the 43-precinct district. Each issue won by a big majority in all four of the city wards and the nine precincts in adjoining Liverpool and St. Clair Townships which are part of the school district.

SUPT. PAUL Blair this morning announced the resignation of Pelini effective July 31. He has accepted a position with the Tri - State Producing Co. of East Liverpool.

Battle Waged By Guerrillas And Lebanese

Speculation Heard That Units May Be Syrian Infiltrators

By The Associated Press

Lebanese troops fought a day-long battle with Arab guerrillas Tuesday, but this time the army identified its opponents as "non-Palestinian armed groups." There was speculation in Beirut the guerrillas were Syrian infiltrators.

At least one guerrilla and one Lebanese soldier were killed in the fighting near the town of Kater Rikha, a communique said. Reports reaching the Lebanese capital said about 2,000 Syrian infiltrators recently entered Lebanon.

Kater Rrikha is about seven miles from Hasbaya, scene of weekend fighting between Lebanese troops and Palestinian guerrillas of the Al Saika group, which is affiliated with neighboring Syria's ruling Baath party.

Lebanon's trouble wth guerrilla groups stems from government attempts to prevent Palestinian guerrillas operating against Israel from Lebanese soil for fear of Israeli retaliation.

Two weeks ago some of Lebanon's 160,000 Palestinian refugees demonstrated in support of the guerrillas, and in rioting that resulted 18 persons were killed and more than 100 injured. The riots led to the resignation of Premier Rashid Karami, and the nation is still without a new government.

Al Fatah, most powerful of the Arab commando organizations, warned Lebanon to "lift the siege around Palestine refugee camps," free imprisoned supporters of the movement and let Palestinian guerrillas operate unhampered from Lebanese soil. The warning was broadcast from Cairo Tuesday following a Lebanese army announcement that it would take "military deterrent measures" against the guerrillas in Lebanon.

Meanwhile an Israeli army spokesmen reported a two-hour artillery battle Tuesday one mile southeast of the Sea of Galilee. He said Jordanian rocket and mortar fire was directed at settlements near Tel Qazir and Israeli guns fired back. No casualties or damage were reported.

On the Suez front, Israel showed newsmen its "Bar-Lev Line" along the east bank of the canal to counter President Gamal Abdel Nasser's claim that Egyptian shelling had destroyed 60 per cent of the Israeli positions.

The newsmen saw no damage in the massive bunkers and redoubts and went through a 30-minute shelling in one bunker without injury.

In New York, U.N. ambassadors for the Big Four met again Tuesday in their continuing effort to find a peace formula for the Middle East, and Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin and Assistant Secretary of State Joseph J. Sisco had their 11th meeting on the subject in Washington.

Call Loss Marks Wellsville's Vote

Councilman John E. Call, an incumbent seeking a third term, was defeated in Wellsville's Democratic primary Tuesday, finishing last in a four - man race for three member-at-large nominations.

The party gave the nominations to Robert Taggart, an incumbent asking a second term, George T. Lawton, a former councilman, and Laird C. Stacey, a roll shop employe of the Crucible Steel Division of Colt Industries at Midland.

The complete, unofficial tabulation showed:

Taggart	232
Lawton	196
Stacey	193
Call	133

Taggart, of 1927 Chester Ave., is an inspector at Crucible. Lawton, who resides at 1515 Clark Ave., is a physical education teacher at Daw Junior High School. Stacey resides at 1005 Main St.

Call resides at 1703 Lincoln Ave. and is employed in the heat treat department at Crucible.

Democrats settled only one other contest. They nominated Charles N. Allison of 617 Aten Ave., a bookkeeper at the H. K. Porter Co., for the Fourth Ward seat. Allison, a former Southern Local School District board of education member, defeated Samuel S. Maylone of 18th St., export sales manager for the Patterson Industries Division of Banner Industries.

Allison	101
Maylone	46

Republicans skipped the primaries entirely under the "no contest" law. Their candidates received a free ride into the November general election.

Only 327 went to the polls for the Democratic primary.

Two more candidates were nominated without opposition in the party voting. Russell R. Keefer was picked for the First Ward seat and Nunzio S. Lombardozzi was nominated for the Third Ward post. Each received 44 complimentary votes.

City's 4,244 Vote Proves Biggest Since '57 Primary

By ROBERT POPP

Surprising even the experts, East Liverpool Tuesday cast the largest vote in a municipal primary election since 1957.

Forecast at 3,800, the total vote in the 34 precincts was 4,244, or 444 over the estimate. The 43-precinct East Liverpool School District showed a turnout of 5,384 — 984 over the prediction.

The municipal primaries traditionally bring out the smallest vote of any election. The city cast 3,570 votes at the last comparable election in 1967. In 1965, the turnout was 3,886. In 1963, the vote hit 3,893. The turnout hit 3,432 in the 1961 primaries and 4,163 in the 1959 voting.

A check of the records shows that the 1957 primaries exceeded yesterday's turnout. The vote then was 5,800. In the 1955 primaries, 3,672 went to the polls. And the turnout hit 4,311 in 1953.

Miss Rebecca Resnick, director of elections at the County Election Board's office, pointed out that it was interest in the two East Liverpool school levies that swelled the vote to unexpected proportions.

A breakdown showed the balloting yesterday was comprised of 2,249 Democratic tickets and 1,995 Republican. A forenoon sampling of precincts Tuesday indicated the turnout might exceed expectations. But the trend was spotty — up from 1967 in same areas and down in others.

The Election Board made its traditional "flash count" on returns on the local school levies. It also received a telephone tabulation on the vote on a $160,000 Southern Local School District bond issue. In both instances, the precinct personnel telephoned the election board as soon as the returns were counted.

The first area to report was Glasgow Precinct of Madison Township. It furnished figures on the Southern Local issue at

Southern's Bond Issue Turned Down

Southern Local School District voters Tuesday rejected a $160,000 bond issue that was to have provided funds for an addition to the high school building.

The complete, unofficial count showed the issue was turned down by a margin of 133 votes, with the tabulation:

The board of education proposed to use the funds to erect six new classrooms on the east side of the south wing of the high school building. Educators said the high school, erected in 1963 to accommodate 325 students, now has an enrollment of over 450. The projected enrollment for the 1969-70 term is nearly 500.

Helicopter Crash Kills 34 In Viet

35 Others Injured In Worst Accident Of Type In War

SAIGON (AP) — A U.S. Army Chinook helicopter packed with South Vietnamese infantrymen crashed and burned Tuesday, killing 34 of the men aboard and injuring the other 35, the U.S. Command announced today. It was the worst helicopter crash of the war.

A U.S. spokesman said the 50-foot CH47 helicopter, one of the workhorses of the war, developed mechanical trouble while carrying the South Vietnamese to an operational area 75 miles north of Saigon.

Two of the three American crewmen were killed and the other was injured. The rest of the casualties were Vietnamese.

No other details were available, but the spokesman said the crash was being investigated.

A total of 2,598 helicopters now have been reported lost in the war, with 79 of them destroyed since April 1. Of these, 52 have been shot down and the rest lost because of collisions, mechanical trouble or enemy shelling that caught them on the ground.

Although this was the worst helicopter crash of the war, the toll has been exceeded in several crashes of fixed-wing planes.

U.S. spokesmen say they can give no particular reason for the recent large losses of helicopters, but they cite the "enormity of the operation." They say more than 3,000 U.S. helicopters now are operating in Vietnam. And that during a normal week they average more than 30 flights each, transport more than 150,000 troops and haul more than 30 million pounds of cargo.

Although the performance manual specifies that the Chinook can carry a crew of three and 33 fully equipped combat troops, U.S. spokesmen said this is the standard for American troops in the United States.

They explained that the only limitation in Vietnam is the payload, and that the Chinook can lift up to 16,000 pounds, depending on how much fuel it is carrying and the distance it has to travel. And the average Vietnamese soldier is much smaller than an American soldier, weighing about 100 pounds.

Slates Set For Council Bids In Fall

Sample Leads Both Tickets In Battle For A Ninth Term

All six incumbent councilmen who sought new terms — three from each party — were renominated in Tuesday's primaries as Republicans and Democrats picked slates to oppose each other in the November general election.

Each party had only one major race, the contest for the three Council-at-Large nominations. Each selected a slate comprised of one inumbent and two newcomers.

Councilman Robert W. Sample, Republican, led both tickets in winning renomination as a member-at-large. Bidding for a ninth term, he ran first in a six-man GOP field. Republicans also nominated J. E. (Ed) Curry of 414 Ogden St., a steelworker and former two - term member of the board of education, and William T. Kind of S. Surrey Rd., also a steelworker who served as Third Ward councilman 10 years ago.

The three defeated Victor Lee Smith of 919 Bradshaw Ave., manager of the Arrow Pants Shop; Richard W. Carter of 1180 Erie St., an employe of Globe Refractories, Inc., and chairman of the city zoning appeals board, and Kenneth R. Kibler of 811 Crestview Dr., an insurance agent and operator of a real estate agency.

Kountz of 1271 Erie St., a plant guard and a former Council clerk, and Floyd L. Murray of 2108 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., now in his fourth term as First Ward councilman.

Burcham, Kountz and Murray defeated Lawrence Regis Allison of 795 Ohio Ave., an employe of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., and Paul Boggess of 1841 Harvey Ave., a sixth - grade teacher at East Elementary School.

Slates Set For Council Bids In Fall

Sample Leads Both Tickets In Battle For A Ninth Term

All six incumbent councilmen who sought new terms — three from each party — were renominated in Tuesday's primaries as Republicans and Democrats picked slates to oppose each other in the November general election.

Each party had only one major race, the contest for the three Council-at-large nominations. Each selected a slate comprised of one inumbent and two newcomers.

Councilman Robert W. Sample, Republican, led both tickets in winning renomination as a member-at-large. Bidding for a ninth term, he ran first in a six-man GOP field. Republicans also nominated J. E. (Ed) Curry of 414 Ogden St., a steelworker and former two - term member of the board of education, and William T. Kind of S. Surrey Rd., also a steelworker who served as Third Ward councilman 10 years ago.

The three defeated Victor Lee Smith of 919 Bradshaw Ave., manager of the Arrow Pants Shop; Richard W. Carter of 1180 Erie St., an employe of Globe Refractories, Inc., and chairman of the city zoning appeals board, and Kenneth R. Kibler of 811 Crestview Dr., an insurance agent and operator of a real estate agency.

The complete, unofficial returns showed:

Sample	1,375
Kind	967
Curry	917
Kibler	629
Carter	438
Smith	410

In the at-large race, Democrats gave an easy victory to Donal I. Burcham of Henry Ave., a maintenance employe at Crucible seeking a second term, and also nominated Owen D. Kountz of 1271 Erie St., a plant guard and a former Council clerk, and Floyd L. Murray of 2108 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., now in his fourth term as First Ward councilman.

Burcham, Kountz and Murray defeated Lawrence Regis Allison of 795 Ohio Ave., an employe of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., and Paul Boggess of 1841 Harvey Ave., a sixth - grade teacher at East Elementary School.

The complete, unofficial returns showed:

Burcham	1,219
Kountz	1,129
Murray	867
Allison	784
Boggess	630

Frank P. Duffy of 1623 Holliday St., now in his third term as councilman-at-large, easily won a five-man Democratic race for the nomination in the First Ward. He seeks the post now held by Murray.

Duffy, a veteran potter, defeated Donald S. Hancock of 1450 Pennsylvania Ave., who served two terms in Council and

Fire Drill Pays Off For 360 School Children In Explosion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Commissioners from Ohio's eight largest urban counties agreed here Tuesday that a one-half per cent sales tax hike would be the best solution to their financial woes.

The group decided to ask the Ohio General Assembly for legislation to provide the added tax revenue to support county budgets that are going into the red.

Counties already are allowed to impose a permissive one-half per cent sales tax but they want the tax to be made mandatory statewide.

Commissioners noted that five counties represented at Tuesday's meeting had attempted to get more money through the permissive sales tax, but have been stymied by referendum and legal action.

The group, called together by Cuyahoga County commissioners, is composed of officials of Cuyahoga, Franklin, Lucas, Hamilton, Stark, Montgomery, Mahoning and Summit counties.

"Emergency effort is needed by the state legislature and if necessary a state income tax," said Summit County Commissioner Victor Herbert. "We're in desperate shape."

Voters And The Schools

Voters in the East Liverpool School District committed themselves to financing the education program with the present tax schedule.

Taxpayers who last November turned down a new levy and the two proposed renewals have agreed to meet their responsibility to operate the schools for the benefit of our youngsters.

In casting ballots for the two existing levies, a lot of people had to overcome serious contradictory thoughts about the status of education in our community, the attitudes of the board, the administrators, the teachers.

Certainly, the school system currently does not have the whole-hearted confidence of the general public. There is internal friction, there is administrative laxity, there is unresponsiveness to community concerns.

An unusual large number of teachers are retiring or leaving the system at the end of the term, posing a problem of filling the instructor ranks with an regional image that is not especially conducive to attracting capable new faculty members.

The Tuesday support of the levies was a tribute to the understanding by a majority of the public of the financial need of the schools and to the hard work and persuasiveness of Leo Lawrence, J. E. Curry, James Lowe and others who served with "Citizens Who Care."

Now the community is expecting some further changes in the system. Voters are willing to continue to underwrite the costs of education as their direct obligation. The board of education should meet its obligations in line with what the public wants.

Quick Troop Withdrawal Appears Out

The Vietnam guessing game goes on in Washington and Paris.

Two high-ranking Republican senators last week called for immediate withdrawal of some American troops to break the deadlock in Paris.

Administration spokesmen followed up the demands by arguing that quick withdrawal of a portion of American troops was not part of President Nixon's strategy and won't be unless specific conditions are met.

ONE OF THE REASONS given for disregarding the advice of the GOP senators was that President Nixon is planning some new moves he will initiate when the time is right.

White House spokesmen also said there has been some progress in bargaining at Paris although not in terms of moving toward agreement on ending the war.

Sens. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and George Aiken of Vermont issued their separate calls for some type of troop pullback apparently because of the undermining effect the long war is having on American confidence and economy.

A growing number of Americans are coming around to the point of view that the United States—in eight years of fighting—has lived up to its commitment to Vietnam.

Another segment feels the billions on top of billions poured into Vietnam have contributed to the shakiness of the American economy and weakened this nation's financial capability to deal with domestic crises to a dangerous degree.

Public opinion polls indicate an upward spiral in the number of Americans who feel getting into the war was a mistake.

Taken as a whole, the people holding differing views on the war add up to a sizable portion of the citizenry who are ready for some dramatic action on the part of the United States aimed at ending the killing of U.S. servicemen.

MANY PEOPLE are beginning to see that short of total war—which the United States is not willing to undertake—the final settlement will not significantly change basic facts in Vietnam from what they were years ago.

These are the people who believe the expenditure of additional lives in these circumstances is useless and are pressing to hasten the end of the war.

In some quarters, they are lumped together in a single category labeled, "unpatriotic" but the term "realistic" would be more accurate.

Withdrawal of several thousand troops might or might not speed negotiations. But there is no question it would put more zing in Mr. Nixon's statement that the South Vietnamese are going to have to take over a larger share of the fighting.

The Last Laugh

Artist Peter Hurd has found the silver lining in the dark cloud that enveloped his painting of Lyndon B. Johnson when the Texan still resided in the White House.

You'll recall that Mr. Johnson evaluated Mr. Hurd's egg tempera painting with the classic critic phrase: "It's the ugliest thing I ever saw."

Understandably piqued, Mr. Hurd returned the $6,000 retainer fee to the commissioning White House Historical Association and retrieved his portrait.

Following that, he offered it for public sale.

Taking note of the rising interest in the painting as a curiosity, he pulled it back from the auction block and offered it to the Smithsonian Institution which administers the National Portrait Gallery.

And that is when he found the silver lining.

A Monday reception will mark the hanging of the portrait in the prime position in the east corridor presidential gallery.

Not bad fate for a painting that couldn't make the White House wall.

Their Icon: 'Academic Freedom'

The befuddled thinking of some segments of the faculties of our colleges and universities is hard for the average American to understand.

Throughout the country, in recent months, these faculties have shown conclusively that they are totally incapable of controlling large numbers of the students they teach. The administrations of these same institutions have proven equally inept.

In a number of instances, the administrations, in sheer desperation, have had to call for police to restore order and bring the students under control.

AND YET THE PROFESSORS continue to deplore the use of police under any circumstances, chanting again and again the words "academic freedom" which have become their icon.

Sharply criticizing the Nixon administration's demand for an end to student disorders and call for arrests and prosecutions when necessary, many delegates to the American Association of University Professors, meeting in Minneapolis, drew up a resolution condemning the President's position as a "direct threat to academic freedom."

Does academic freedom, we ask, give the right to disrupt the educational process? Does it permit the damaging or destruction of educational buildings? Does it grant the right for students to dictate curricular matters? Does it allow students to forcibly hold and even injure members of the university administration?

Apparently anything is permissible in the view of these professors except to call for police to restrain the students. For just as "academic freedom" has become their icon, so a "police state" has become, for them, the ultimate evil.

France could hardly be called a police state as it goes about democratically selecting its new leader. And yet it possibly could have been had former President Charles de Gaulle chosen to use his great power in this way. Instead, he stepped down willingly after being defeated in an election he requested himself.

It is much more likely that France could have disintegrated into anarchy if it had not been for the strength of De Gaulle and his willingness to use that strength to prevent disorder.

At the time that the French students tore up the pavement in the Latin Quarter of Paris and hoisted their black anarchist flags, De Gaulle crushed the incipient rebellion with one statement:

"I WILL NOT TOLERATE France fouling its own bed."

The people of the nation rallied behind him and gave him a landslide majority in the ensuing election.

In the United States, a comparatively mild exhortation from President Nixon draws the fire of the indignant professors.

In their concern about losing their academic freedom, they stand in grave danger of losing a great deal more, their personal freedom.

But in their fuzzy thinking, this seems incomprehensible.

Golden Era Recalled

By parting the curtain of history slightly, we can take a backward glance at the boisterous crowd lining the single railroad track at Utah's Promontory Summit almost a century ago.

Excitement was high—helped along considerably by stout whisky.

Central Pacific Railroad's president, Leland Stanford, took aim at a golden spike and missed. He turned the silver maul over to Thomas C. Durant of the Union Pacific Railroad. Another mighty swing failed.

Stepping to the front, a professional gandy dancer expertly drove the golden spike home and linked the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

A telegraph key clicked, wires crackled and President Grant received the message: "Sir, we have the honor to report the last rail is laid, the last spike driven. The Pacific railroad is completed."

The long-awaited message unleashed a celebration. A magnetic ball dropped from the Capitol dome. The Liberty Bell rang in Philadelphia. A four-mile-long parade formed in Chicago. New York's Central Park reverberated with 100-gun salutes. Church and fire bells rang throughout the country.

The first transcontinental railroad was big news in a young and fast-developing country.

It meant new homes, new jobs—progress.

The centennial anniversary of the driving of the golden spike will be observed Saturday at Promontory Summit in tribute to the role of railroads in our nation's development.

Only one passenger train remains on "The Overland Route," the pioneer transcontinental way—and that is by order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The complexion of railroading has changed immensely since its early days but its golden era symbolized by the golden spike is worthy of commemoration for it is a part of American history.

Panthers Vow Black Union

NEW YORK — On a clear day you can see the giant mills from the university heights. It's a short hike. And the SDS and the clenched-fisted, Maoist red book-waving Black Panther Party are taking it—politically, industrially and perambulatorily.

Victor Riesel

The fanning out from campus confrontations to picket line protests is under way, slowly but certainly, if you look closely.

On May Day here, 150 trim Black Panthers, in full crisp uniforms and berets, lined the first step of the federal courthouse. They were on the alert. They chanted Maoist slogans. They watched over their womenfolk who, in black sweaters, distributed revolutionary literature which sounded like throwaways by the "agitprop" political commissars of Mao's Eighth Route Army and N. Lenin's "workers and soldiers" period. Support to those in the struggle was pledged by the Panther literature not only from the uniformed men but also by forces as far off as the Albanian Party of Labor.

BUT THESE LITHE young Panthers were not aping anyone. They were serious. They were cool. For the moment, they were hung up on the struggle at Ford's great Mahwah, N.J., car and truck assembly plant. Their leaflets called for support of the black workers some miles across the river on Route 17. There was no doubt. The Black Panther Party's young men were assigning themselves the role of big brothers to the old workers.

This street literature scalded the United Auto Workers Local 906, as well as the Ford Motor Co. and America, "the running dog."

It all is now one revolutionary package—Pantherism, separatism, Leninism, Marxism, Maoism, and basically the amateurism which Lenin himself called left-wing infantilism.

The Ford affair is a simpler matter, Some 47 to 53 per cent of the big assembly plant's workers are black. Many are newly hired. Foremen and supervisors are tense, sensitive and some are tough. Grievances between the supervising staff and black employes crop up faster than insults at a sandlot soccer game.

The Mahwah auto Local 906 swoops in like hawks on an open chicken coop. George Strawn, the local's president, can match militancy with anyone. So can the union's two black representatives at the huge shop—staffers Lorenzo Oakley and Jim Clark. They're the nearest thing to perpetual motion this side of the moon. They've fought with management and dialogued so effectively that foremen, supervisors and even one operation manager have been shifted or transferred out of the plant.

The union's regional leader, an erudite giant chap named Marty Gerber, directs the national union's Region 9, in which this Ford car and truck plant operates. To know "Marty" is to know a tough bargainer.

BUT ALL THIS has not been enough for the revolutionaries inside the mill. They want "action." They want separatism. They want a union of their own, the United Black Brothers. They want to bypass the United Auto Workers. They want to negotiate directly with management for the plant's black workers.

Though 25 per cent of Ford's national hourly rated workers are black—and thousands of hard-core youth are being hired regularly—this is not enough for the extremists. Thus, when during the week of April 21, a supervisor (who was later suspended) insulted a Negro employe, the direct actionists hit the bricks. Soon some 500 were on the picket line.

With them were white SDS teenagers. In the town was Mark Rudd, the young chief of staff of the SDS forces which took Columbia University last year.

But the tough vanguard were the Black Panthers. They crossed the river at the invitation of the handful of men who had organized the United Black Brothers. The word had come to the New York contingent from the Newark Panthers.

Several shifts were called off or slowed by the company at a cost of 20 hours production at the rate of 55 vehicles an hour.

EXCEPT FOR THE blue collars, this might have been a university. The demands were for the dumping of all supervisors, amnesty, and sole bargaining recognition.

They could not care less that the local union leaders, and national union Ford Director Ken Bannon of Detroit, and the top labor relations executives had met on Tuesday, April 29 to cool the rumpus. The union and the company agreed to name a committee of four Negroes, two from each side, to investigate and to bring in suggestions for immediate moves to eradicate tensions and troublemakers on both sides.

The extremists want their own action—their own union. Everywhere there are "varying degrees of pressure" on the auto companies from the black extremists. Everywhere they want the corporations to bypass the big UAW and deal directly with them. Everywhere the firms turn them down or there would be chaos in this massive industry.

But the movement mushrooms. Last Tuesday there was, for example, an election at Local 3, which covers the Dodge Hamtramk (Mich.) assembly plant, for vice president. This was a full confrontation between the nationally supported UAW forces, and the Panther-backed Dodge Revolutionary-union Movement (DRUM). The moderate candidate won by a vote of 2,800 to 1,244 for the challenger. That's a big margin. But it's also a big vote for a "revolutionary" movement.

Thus passed May Day, 1969—the year of the first shifts from the assembly hall to the assembly line.

A Matter Of Backbone

WASHINGTON — There are no signs yet that the administration, through its prosecuting power, is going to have "the backbone to stand up against" the organizers and perpetrators of a widespread pattern of violence in America's universities, colleges and high schools.

President Nixon, in a speech Tuesday to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said:

"When we find situations in numbers of colleges and universities which reach the point where students, in the name of dissent and in the name of change, terrorize other students and faculty members; when they rifle files; when they engage in violence; when they carry guns and knives in the classrooms, then I say it is time for faculties, boards of trustees and school administrators to have the backbone to stand up against this kind of situation."

BUT MR. NIXON puts the principal responsibility for action on the shoulders of the universities, when actually no university is able, by itself, to cope with the big conspiracy operating from coast to coast which has upset so many campuses.

Sen. Gordon Allott, Republican of Colorado, on the same day that the President was speaking, told the Senate that the colleges and universities of the country for nearly three weeks now have been subjected "to an unprecedented and dramatically well-organized assault by the Students for a Democratic Society—SDS—and their auxiliary organizations."

The Colorado senator pointed out that officials of the SDS have been quoted as saying that "they view this moment in history as one similar to the 1905 Russian revolution."

The senator cited, in their own words, the goals of SDS laders: "Smash the military in the s c h o o l s—n o Reserve Officers Training Corps—no war or counter-insurgency research —no military or war recruiting—no draft assemblies in high schools — no police training on the campus."

The "spring rebellion," as the campus disrupto the Vietnam war and racial friction. But basically the objective is to bring disorder. Mr. Allott declared:

"The pattern is the same everywhere, of course, including in my own state of Colorado. In fact, I have in my possession an SDS document handed out recently at a Denver East High School basketball game instructing students on how to make homemade bombs and other explosive devices."

Almost every campus of any size has been hit with some kind of militant student activity. The presence of rifles and arms has been noted in several instances. Secret workshops have been held to teach students how to use weapons and explosives.

ON THURSDAY Republicans and Democrats rose in the Senate to call for grand jury action and one by one warned of lawlessness, revolution, anarchy and Communist influence in the colleges.

Sen. John L. McClellan, Democrat of Arkansas, announced that his permanment investigations subcommittee was beginning an investigation of the disorders on the campuses, including the "motives and financing" of such groups as the SDS, the Black Panthers and others which have been active in college disturbances.

Sen. Allott spoke again to the Senate, declaring:

"Documents such as those issued by the SDS clearly indicate, beyond any reasonable doubt, that there is an active, aggressive national conspiracy to destroy by force and violence, including the use of dangerous weapons, the peace and dignity of the academic communities."

THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT can prosecute individuals and organizations which operate across state lines to bring about disorder. It is not necessary to get the consent of a university president or its board of trustees before the federal authorities intervene. For the educational institutions are in reality the victims of a nationwide conspiracy which the federal government has failed to squelch.

Many people are beginning to ask whether the Nixon administration has the "backbone" to do the prosecuting job that is essential if national plots are to be broken up and the conspirators taken to court for punishment.

The extremists want their own action—their own union. Everywhere there are "varying degrees of pressure" on the auto companies from the black extremists. Everywhere they want the corporations to bypass the big UAW and deal directly with them. Everywhere the firms turn them down or there would be chaos in this massive industry.

But the movement mushrooms. Last Tuesday there was, for example, an election at Local 3, which covers the Dodge Hamtramk (Mich.) assembly plant, for vice president. This was a full confrontation between the nationally supported UAW forces, and the Panther-backed Dodge Revolutionary-union Movement (DRUM). The moderate candidate won by a vote of 2,800 to 1,244 for the challenger. That's a big margin. But it's also a big vote for a "revolutionary" movement.

Thus passed May Day, 1969—the year of the first shifts from the assembly hall to the assembly line.

A Matter Of Backbone

WASHINGTON — There are no signs yet that the administration, through its prosecuting power, is going to have "the backbone to stand up against" the organizers and perpetrators of a widespread pattern of violence in America's universities, colleges and high schools.

President Nixon, in a speech Tuesday to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said:

"When we find situations in numbers of colleges and universities which reach the point where students, in the name of dissent and in the name of change, terrorize other students and faculty members; when they rifle files; when they engage in violence; when they carry guns and knives in the classrooms, then I say it is time for faculties, boards of trustees and school administrators to have the backbone to stand up against this kind of situation."

BUT MR. NIXON puts the principal responsibility for action on the shoulders of the universities, when actually no university is able, by itself, to cope with the big conspiracy operating from coast to coast which has upset so many campuses.

Sen. Gordon Allott, Republican of Colorado, on the same day that the President was speaking, told the Senate that the colleges and universities of the country for nearly three weeks now have been subjected "to an unprecedented and dramatically well-organized assault by the Students for a Democratic Society—SDS—and their auxiliary organizations."

The Colorado senator pointed out that officials of the SDS have been quoted as saying that "they view this moment in history as one similar to the 1905 Russian revolution."

The senator cited, in their own words, the goals of SDS laders: "Smash the military in the s c h o o l s—n o Reserve Officers Training Corps—no war or counter-insurgency research—no military or war recruiting—no draft assemblies in high schools — no police training on the campus."

The "spring rebellion," as the campus disrupto the Vietnam war and racial friction. But basically the objective is to bring disorder. Mr. Allott declared:

"The pattern is the same everywhere, of course, including in my own state of Colorado. In fact, I have in my possession an SDS document handed out recently at a Denver East High School basketball game instructing students on how to make homemade bombs and other explosive devices."

Almost every campus of any size has been hit with some kind of militant student activity. The presence of rifles and arms has been noted in several instances. Secret workshops have been held to teach students how to use weapons and explosives.

ON THURSDAY Republicans and Democrats rose in the Senate to call for grand jury action and one by one warned of lawlessness, revolution, anarchy and Communist influence in the colleges.

Sen. John L. McClellan, Democrat of Arkansas, announced that his permanment investigations subcommittee was beginning an investigation of the disorders on the campuses, including the "motives and financing" of such groups as the SDS, the Black Panthers and others which have been active in college disturbances.

Sen. Allott spoke again to the Senate, declaring:

"Documents such as those issued by the SDS clearly indicate, beyond any reasonable doubt, that there is an active, aggressive national conspiracy to destroy by force and violence, including the use of dangerous weapons, the peace and dignity of the academic communities."

THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT can prosecute individuals and organizations which operate across state lines to bring about disorder. It is not necessary to get the consent of a university president or its board of trustees before the federal authorities intervene. For the educational institutions are in reality the victims of a nationwide conspiracy which the federal government has failed to squelch.

Many people are beginning to ask whether the Nixon administration has the "backbone" to do the prosecuting job that is essential if national plots are to be broken up and the conspirators taken to court for punishment.

After 5-Day Maiden Voyage

Queen Elizabeth 2 Sails Into New York Harbor

NEW YORK (AP) — The Queen Elizabeth 2 sails into New York harbor today after a five-day maiden transatlantic voyage. A gala welcome awaits the luxury superliner.

The $72 million ship, the pride of the Cunard Steam-Ship Co Ltd., will have an official escort of Coast Guard ships, a U.S. Navy destroyer and two helicopters as she enters the harbor. Hundreds of small private boats also are expected to welcome her.

The QE2 will sail under the Verrazano Bridge at the mouth of the harbor, through upper New York Bay between Governor's Island and the Statue of Liberty, past the Battery at the tip of Manhattan and up the Hudson River.

She will sail about two miles north of her pier, turn around and return to the dock so spectators on the New Jersey and New York sides of the river can get a glimpse of the 65,863-ton ship.

Mayor John V. Lindsay, who has proclaimed New York "Queen Elizabeth 2 Day" will board the QE2 in the harbor to join in welcoming ceremonies. Among those present will be Sir Basil Smallpeice, chairman of Cunard; C.N. Anderson, president of Cunard Line, North America, and the ship's captain, William E. Warwick.

The QE2's elaborate entry will be in sharp contrast to the arrival March 7, 1940, of the original Queen Elizabeth. The first Queen glided quietly into the harbor without announcement during World War II.

The old Queen left New York for the last time Oct. 30, 1968 and finally sailed to Port Everglades, Fla., where she was retired as a hotel, museum and convention center. Her sister ship, the Queen Mary, retired a year earlier and is docked at San Diego, Calif.

Levy Defeated For Columbiana

COLUMBIANA — Columbiana Village School District voters Tuesday rejected a proposed new 5-mill levy to provide current operating expenses.

The proposal was turned down by a 353-vote margin. The complete, unofficial tabulation showed:

For the Levy	634
Against Levy	997

In addition to the village proper, the school district takes in two precincts — North and Northeast — in adjoining Fairfield Township and overlaps into four precincts in neighboring Mahoning County.

The vote on the levy in the village proper showed 594 in favor of the levy and 961 opposed. The over - all vote in the school district was 1,563.

Before hunters nearly exterminated them in the 1800s, there were 60 million bison in North America.

W. Va. Slated For New Plan On Auto Tags

CHARLESTON (AP) — A new system of issuing auto license tags in West Virginia will streamline government operations and result in an annual savings of $250,000, according to Gov. Arch A. Moore Jr.

Moore outlined the State Motor Vehicle Department plan, scheduled to begin next January at a news conference Tuesday.

He said the plan calls for issuance of private passenger car tags for a five-year period with a new registration card and a supplemental decal issued each year.

Drivers will pay license fees each year as under the present system, but license renewals will be stretched over the full year instead of once a year.

The decal will designate the effective year of the renewal and will self-destruct if detached from the license plate, Moore said.

Newell Building Sets Pre-School Signup Friday

A pre-school registration will be held Friday at the Newell Jefferson Elementary building from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

Miss Betty Buben, principal, asks that all parents of children who will be 6 on or before Oct. 31, and who are planning on enrolling them in school, attend.

Both parents and the children will be offered an opportunity to meet with teachers and to attend classes, she said.

Parents are requested to bring birth certificates and immunization records showing the child has been inoculated against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, smallpox, measles and polio. These immunizations must be completed prior to the child entering school, Miss Buben pointed out.

Refreshments will be served the children by the PTA.

Republicans Map Plans For Job Center Conflict

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican congressional leaders have been told by the White House there will be no compromise in the fight over President Nixon's order closing 59 Job Corps centers.

The GOP delegation also got a cram course Tuesday on the Job Corps' reputed failures as ammunition for a significant test of the administration's ability to move domestic programs through the Democratic Congress.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he will lead a fight to shelve a resolution sponsored by Sen. Allan Cranston, D-Calif., 30 Democratic colleagues and GOP Sen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts.

Dirksen said Republicans supporting the President's decision will rely heavily on a General Accounting Office report unfavorable to the Job Corps.

Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., said the GAO study indicates the Job Corps is "simply a waste of the taxpayers' money."

The Cranston resolution would call for a delay in center closings until current participants at each had completed their job training courses. Administration officials have promised that trainees who want to continue will be transferred to other centers and none will be left stranded.

The administration holds there are more effective ways to train ghetto youths for jobs. The Demoracts say that, despite its failures, the program has taken some dead-end kids off the streets who would not have been reached by any other means.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., whose every move is viewed suspiciously by critics as a maneuver toward a 1972 presidential bid, has challenged the GAO report. Kennedy said GAO unfairly downgraded the corps' performance.

But Dirksen is adament. "This program has got to be tightened up—something has to be done about it," he said.

Dirksen cited figures produced at the White House by Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz that only 25 per cent of the original enrollees ever finish the course and only 17 per cent are placed in jobs.

He said Camp Kilmer, N.J.—once cited by former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as a shining example of the Jobs Corps program—is near the bottom of the list in producing graduates capable of filling jobs.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I remove surface discolorations from my bathtub?

A. — Apply a paste of baking powder and peroxide to the discolored areas and, after this has dried, wash it away. Many other such cleaning tips are contained in my household-hints manual.

Q. — How can I prevent skillets, waffle irons and griddles from sticking?

A. — Wash them out and, after drying, sprinkle salt into them and put in a warm oven. After heating, dust out the salt and return the utensils to their shelves. The next foods cooked in them will come out easily.

The cost of about everything keeps rising. But not everything. For example, take Camaro. If you equip it with Powerglide, the new 250-hp 350 V8 that runs on regular gas, advance-design power disc brakes, whitewall tires and wheel covers, the price is $147* less than last year's model with comparable equipment, including head restraints. Down at Indy, they think Camaro is a Hugger of a car. That's why they chose Camaro as the Official Pace Car for this year's Indianapolis 500.

$69.00 less than last year's Chevelle with comparable equipment.

Just by looking at the Chevelle Malibu you would guess that its price would be higher than last year's model. Not so. It is priced less than the earlier version. We're not talking about a stripped-down car, either. We're talking about a Malibu Sport Coupe with head restraints and a 200-hp V8 that runs on regular gas. If you add Powerglide, power disc brakes, wheel covers and whitewall tires to your Malibu, you'll find it's $69* less. Add it all up: Chevelle is a lot more car for a lot less money.

ANN LANDERS

ABC Bit-Husband Style

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: When my husband failed to get home for dinner on time I used to get awfully irritated. Then one day I invented a little game which not only did away with the irritation but put me in a happy frame of mind.

Now I'm able to greet him with a smile instead of a glare.

The game goes like this. Start with A and go through the alphabet — think of a word you want to be — or are — such as: appreciative, blessed, conscientious, dependable, efficient friendly, gracious, happy, intuitive, joyous, kind, loving, magnaimous, neighborly, objective, patient, quiescent, reasonable, sincere, truthful, understanding, vital, wholesome, exciting, youthful, zealous. — NOT MAD ANY MORE.

-:-

Dear Not Mad: Your little game proves a theory of mine. The mind can hold only one thought at a time. When you drive out a negative thought and put in its place a positive one, you become a better person. Thanks for sharing.

Mother's Error

Dear Ann: I messed my life up early — married at 17 and had two children by the time I was 19. At 21 I divorced my husband at his request. He wanted to marry a local belly dancer.

Beautiful so far, isn't it? Well, the worst is yet to come.

I had a chance to make good money on a road job and decided to take it. The only hitch was the children. My oldest sistei and her husband, who had no children of their own, said they'd take the kids on one condition — that I allow them to adopt the kids legally. It seemed the only way, so I agreed.

Now, six years later, the girl is mouthy and the boy is a hellion. They call me Rena and my sister is "Ma" and her husband is "Pa." Last night they behaved like animals at the table. I remarked that their manners were terrible and it's time they learned better. My sister said, "Stut up. These are OUR kids."

What can I do? — PLENTY SORRY.

Dear Sorry: Very little. Discipline must be administered daily. You can't do much on a drop-in basis, especially since you've signed away your rights. Perhaps a talk with a clergyman would help. He might come up with a solution I can't see through the mail.

Always Receiving

Dear Ann: May isn't here yet and already I'm dreading it.

The "merry" month of May is when we get hit the hardest with upcoming wedding announcements, graduation announcements, college and high school graduations, Bar Mizvahs, Bas Mitzvahs, ad nauseum. It took us until now to recover from the Christmas clobber.

Why do people send announcements to friends and family who live thousands of miles away? We know Betsy is graduating from high school and Jerry is getting married but we can't be there, so who don't they leave us alone? If we want to send a gift we'll send one.

We consider announcement-sending a racket. Do you have the nerve to print my letter and your comment? — RED INK.

-:-

Dear Red: Some people love to get announcements, others don't. My personal opinioin is — it's a compliment to be INVITED, but not announced to.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Psychiatrist Gives Report

Some Seen Losing Minds After Heart Transplant

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Some people receiving the gift of new hearts have paid by losing their minds, a psychiatrist reported today.

They became psychotic or mentally ill after heart transplant surgery. Others have developed curious psychological reactions.

This new aspect to the borrowing of human hearts was described to a convention of the American Psychiatric Association by Dr. Donald T. Lunde, psychiatric consultant to the heart transplant team at Stanford University Medical Center.

He said five of 13 persons receiving hearts at Stanford became psychotic soon after surgery. Three have died, including one who was mentally disturbed from the day of the operation.

Three other persons exhibited at least temporary emotional upsets, Dr. Lunde said. One suffered from depression, the others from disturbances in mood and thinking.

In addition, a man who received a woman's heart wondered whether he would lose his masculinity. But he comforted himself with the thought with that women are less likely to develop coronary heart diseases.

A man in his 40s who received the heart of a 20-year-old felt that he now was young, born again.

A man who learned he had been given the heart of a prominent citizen confided that he felt an obligation to live up to standards set by the donor.

Dr. Lunde said Stanford established a policy of keeping secret the identities of donors so that recipients would not learn them from press reports.

The people who became seriously psychotic suffered from paranoia and delusions, Dr. Lunde said.

One man suspected that the drug used to suppress the body's rejection mechanism against borrowed organs was a poison.

He thought the nurses and doctors wore masks to hide contemptuous, mocking expressions.

One reason for psychological reactions in heart recipients is that they know the rejection mechanism may set it and become lethal, Dr. Lunde said.

For reasons still unknown, the heart-lung machine used in heart transplants may also be involved.

Temporary psychotic episodes have been noted in many patients who have been hooked up to such machines briefly during open heart surgery.

Prednisone, one of the drugs used to counter the rejection mechanism, is also known to affect some people mentally.

Waiting anxiously for a long time for a donor to become available may also be a factor.

Couple Lives In Fairmont Following Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Oyster are residing in Fairmont, W. Va., following their marriage April 12 at noon in the Sacred Heart Church of Chester.

The bride was Miss Betty Jean Nightingale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nightingale of 1787 Clark Ave., Wellsville. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Oyster of Allison School Rd., Chester.

Fr. Robert Hickey officiated for the double - ring ceremony before an altar background of white mums, ferns and candelabra. William Bourne played a half-hour recital of organ music. Dan and Don Oyster, brothers of the bridegroom, served as acolytes.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a full-length linen skimmer accented with floral Venise lace appliques. The bodice featured a crescent waistline, detailed with a self-bow, and short sleeves. The Watteau train was detachable.

Her three-tier veil of silk illusion was held in place by a headpiece of pearl and crystal trimmed petals and a back bow. She carried an arrangement of roses and stephanotis tied with satin streamers. The traditions were observed.

Miss Jeanne Lafferre was maid of honor and Miss Pam Howell, Miss Becky Oyster and Miss Mary Hocking bridesmaids. They appeared in gowns of poudre blue lace fashioned in Empire style accented with satin bows. Their matching petal headpieces had back bows. They carried arrangements of blue daisies and baby breath tied with long velvet streamers of contrasting blue.

Sgt. Williams Oyster served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Steve Harris, Gary Mayhew and Darrell Nightingale.

The mother of the bride chose a poudre blue dress and coat ensemble and the bridegroom's mother a pale green suit. White accessories and gardenia corsages complemented their attire.

W&J Students Call For College Head To Resign

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Students at Washington and Jefferson College have called for the resignation of President Boyd C. Patterson and threatened to boycott classes Thursday if officials do not agree to meet with them on several student demands.

Mark Summers, student government president, and Robert Sommers, former student government president, said Patterson was unresponsive to student demands. They charged he had blocked all attempts for discussion among the faculty, administration and students.

About 300 students gathered in the school's quadrangle at noon Tuesday to voice their demands.

Sales Tax Boost Seen Solution To Financial Woes

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A fire drill paid off for some 360 elementary school pupils when a thundering explosion at a natural gas construction site killed one man and injured at least nine workmen and seven firemen.

Flames from Tuesday's blast at suburban West Mifflin shot 200 feet into the air directly across the street from the school where all the youngsters escaped unharmed.

"The kids got out in about 50 seconds," said Homer Kohl, principal of New England Hollow School. "I was in my office when I heard the explosion. It blew out the windows."

Mrs. Barbara Semak, whose home was near the construction area, said, "I was in the house about 75 feet from the explosion. I thought it was a tornado hitting the house. Rocks were flying all over."

The victim was identified as Anthony Ridella, 59, of East McKeesport, a worker for the Gacon Construction Co. Police said the other injured men were also employed by the firm, which was repairing a section of Pennsylvania 885 for the state Highways Department.

Officials said 25 fire companies and several hundred volunteer firemen rushed to the scene. They said seven firemen were injured as they hosed the school and four neighboring houses to prevent them from catching fire.

A spokesman for the Equitable Gas Co., which owned the gas line, said workers were moving a 24-inch main line at the construction site.

He said a cap used to pressure test the main apparently blew off, struck another line and ruptured it, causing the blast.

"We don't have any idea why the cap blew off," said the spokesman.

W&J Students Call For College Head To Resign

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Students at Washington and Jefferson College have called for the resignation of President Boyd C. Patterson and threatened to boycott classes Thursday if officials do not agree to meet with them on several student demands.

Mark Summers, student government president, and Robert Sommers, former student government president, said Patterson was unresponsive to student demands. They charged he had blocked all attempts for discussion among the faculty, administration and students.

According to the student leaders, Patterson failed to act on a so-called "Bill of Rights for Students" that was presented to him in December.

About 300 students gathered in the school's quadrangle at noon Tuesday to voice their demands.

Chester Club Sets Officers

A slate of officers was elected unanimously during Tuesday night's meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club.

Named were: Lloyd Mansfield, president; Denver Carder, vice president; John W. Boyd, second vice president, and Dr. Carl Ciccarelli, Ron Pschirer and Clayton Lutton, new members of the board of directors.

President Richard Pillo conducted the business session as members voted to purchase a West Virginia state flag for the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Park at the West Virginia end of the Chester - East Liverpool bridge.

A committee was named to make arrangements for the annual dinner recognizing honor students at Oak Glen High School in conjunction with "Ladies Night."

For the third month in a row, it was announced that the club was 100 per cent in submitting committee reports. Its objective is to be first in the 1st District of West Virginia Kiwanis.

Charles Ridenour was program chairman and Alvin Fineman led group singing. Eighteen were present.

Police Oust 60 Students At Dartmouth

By The Associated Press

New Hampshire and Vermont State Police broke down the doors of the Dartmouth College administration building today and dragged, carried and escorted about 60 students from the building.

Meanwhile, about 600 students "camped-in" at Purdue University's Memorial Union after State Police cleared them from the administration building, only 16 hours after police ended an earlier sit-in with 229 arrests.

At Dartmouth, in Hanover, N.H., the helmeted police did not carry clubs and no injuries were reported.

The students, led by members of Students for a Democratic Society, seized the building Tuesday, evicted school officials and nailed the doors shut. The protesters sought an immediate end to Reserve Officer Training Corps program on campus.

About 400 students, chanting "Abolish ROTC," watched police clear the building in 15 minutes. An aide to Gov. Walter Peterson said the governor personally planned the police action at his alma mater, urging the officers to use "appropriate restraint."

The students were taken by bus to nearby Lebanon for arraignment.

State troopers cleared 300 students from the Purdue administration building in Lafayette, Ind., firing a can of Chemical MACE to clear the doorway. The protesters moved to the union, joining others already there.

Purdue officials backed down on an earlier decision and agreed to leave the union open all night. Many of the students there said they sought amnesty for the 229 arrested in the first sit-in, which was a protest over tuition increases.

All East Liverpool returns were complete by 8:45. Columbiana was the last community to report. It furnished its figures about 9 after a delay resulting from a host of write - in votes for Council seats.

Returns from Wellsville, East Palestine and Salem were at the board's office well before 8 p.m.

By 9:15, the last totals had been added and the last figures had been entered on paper. A short time later, the office emptied of all the staff members, extra employes, board members and news people.

"This was one of the quickest election night tabulations on record," Miss Resnick said. "It is a tribute to the hard work and efficiency of everyone connected with the election process —the precinct workers, the district collectors, the members of the board, the staff and the temporary employes. Everyone performed his task with efficiency and dedication and there was a minimum of confusion."

The count made last night represents complete but unofficial returns. The board will meet in its office here at 8:30 a.m. Thursday to begin the official canvass, the meticulous tabulation that produces the figures which are certified to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus. Miss Resnick said the official canvass should be complete by Thursday night.

City Vote

6:32 — just two minutes after the polls closed.

Precinct J of the Second Ward was the first East Liverpool area to report in the "flash count." It provided its figures at 6:37, or seven minutes after the voting ended.

The "flash count" on the East Liverpool levies was completed at 7:32, or 62 minutes after the polls closed.

The entire tabulation process went swiftly and smoothly at the board's office last night. In addition to two - party primaries in East Liverpool and Columbiana, it gathered returns on Democratic primaries in Wellsville and Salem and Republican voting in East Palestine. Leetonia and Lisbon skipped the primaries under the "no contest" law.

All East Liverpool returns were complete by 8:45. Columbiana was the last community to report. It furnished its figures about 9 after a delay resulting from a host of write - in votes for Council seats.

Returns from Wellsville, East Palestine and Salem were at the board's office well before 8 p.m.

By 9:15, the last totals had been added and the last figures had been entered on paper. A short time later, the office emptied of all the staff members, extra employes, board members and news people.

"This was one of the quickest election night tabulations on record," Miss Resnick said. "It is a tribute to the hard work and efficiency of everyone connected with the election process —the precinct workers, the district collectors, the members of the board, the staff and the temporary employes. Everyone performed his task with efficiency and dedication and there was a minimum of confusion."

The count made last night represents complete but unofficial returns. The board will meet in its office here at 8:30 a.m. Thursday to begin the official canvass, the meticulous tabulation that produces the figures which are certified to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus. Miss Resnick said the official canvass should be complete by Thursday night.

They were cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Monday at 9:35 a. m. on Route 7. The patrol reported as the auto approached the site of a traffic check it was observed to pull onto the berm. The young woman, who had been at the wheel, switched places with her fatherin-law, the patrol reported.

Sing A Dirge For Dough

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Let us sing a dirge today for money. It appears to be going the way of the dodo.

In another generation it may become extinct.

There was a time, and not too long ago, when the three most respected things in America were motherhood, the flag and the almighty dollar.

The surest way to show you were a person of importance was to carry in your back pocket a bankroll big enough to choke an ox. Pretenders to wealth carried what became known as "Philadelphia bankroll"—one $5 bill wrapped around 20 $1 bills to give an impression of bulky affluence.

Today a well-to-do man rarely carries around a bankroll big enough to make a mouse gag. Anyone who flashes large bills is regarded as a crude and illiterate showoff, more to be laughed at pityingly than censured.

Money simply isn't money any more. A penny, once the bright shrine of childhood, is simply a nuisance, useful only in paying nuisance sales taxes, the bane of the present day.

Other coins have been similarly downgraded. The half dollar piece has practically disappeared from circulation, and you can go weeks or months without seeing one.

Dimes and nickels haven't much purpose now except to be shoved into machines that dispense coffee or candy bars. The quarter has suffered the most dismal fate of all. You can hardly tell one from a nickel, and it will hardly even buy what a nickel did at one time.

Worst of all is what has happened to the almighty dollar. It seems to be stricken by an incurable pernicious anemia, and its strength visibly ebbs year by year. About all you can buy for one is a shoeshine and a thin magazine.

Yes, let us sing a sad song today for what has happened to money. It has fallen upon evil, evil times. Purchase a suit in a department store and offer to pay for it with cash, and the salesman stares down his nose at you as if you were a hermit or an uncouth pariah. He takes the cash in his reluctant fingers as if it were infected and would soil him.

Money has been replaced by the charge account, the checkbook and the credit card. A man's status today depends upon the number of credit cards he carries in his wallet; if he has fewer than three you can figure he is probably receiving public assistance of some kind.

Of course, here and there some recalcitrant fuddy-duddies are still saving money, hoarding it in baskets in the basement or hiding it in crotch holes in backyard elm trees. They think that money, like the South, will rise again.

But if you want to prove you're with the "in" crowd, you'll take any old money you have left lying around the house, buy a money shredding machine, turn it into scrap paper and throw it down the incinerator. Otherwise, you may be regarded as a hopeless old stick-in-the mud who is giving the neighborhood a bad name.

Meat Prices Mount Despite Large Supplies Of Livestock

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says the rising cost of meat, a major factor in the unexpected jump in this year's food prices, comes at a time when there are abundant supplies of livestock.

"The strength in livestock and meat prices in the face of larger supplies is due to rising consumer incomes, unusually low unemployment rates and increases in population," the department said Monday.

Officials indicated, in effect, that higher prices on both the wholesale and retail level, are the result of more people willing to pay more money to eat more beef.

Department officials indicated last week that previous estimates of a 2 to 2.5 per cent rise in food costs this year were too low and the figure more likely will be about 3 per cent.

A report on the food outlook is scheduled for release by the department Thursday.

Cattle prices have set the pace for the increasing cost of livestock, already at a 17-year-high, Agriculture economists said, and are expected to continue running "well above" a year ago.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said the retail price of sirloin steak in March averaged $1.23 a pound nationally, the highest since sirloin records were started in 1960. A year ago sirloin cost $1.18 a pound.

Chuck roast in March cost 66 cents a pound, compared with 63 cents a year earlier. The high was 76 cents a pound in December 1951, a period of record cattle prices.

Hamburger averaged 58 cents a pound in March, compared with 55 cents a year earlier and the top of 67 cents in April 1951.

The rising cost of food is only part of the reason for the inflation that is worrying the government. The latest figures for the Consumer Price Index, including food as well as other items, showed a jump of eight-tenths of one per cent for March, the steepest monthly rise in 18 years.

Youth's Hearing Set On Strangling Charge

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Terry Lee Place, 18, accused of strangling 4-year-old Stacy Simpson last Thursday, is due to receive a preliminary hearing in Municipal Court on May 18.

The hearing, planned Tuesday, was postponed at the request of Place and his father, who wanted time to seek legal advice.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand—A study of farm tractor drivers in New Zealand found that hearing loss caused by engine and exhaust noise more often affected the left ear than the right. This was explained by the driver's tendency to look over his right shoulder to observe his machinery, thus turning the left ear toward the exhaust.

Sing A Dirge For Dough

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Let us sing a dirge today for money. It appears to be going the way of the dodo.

In another generation it may become extinct.

There was a time, and not too long ago, when the three most respected things in America were motherhood, the flag and the almighty dollar.

The surest way to show you were a person of importance was to carry in your back pocket a bankroll big enough to choke an ox. Pretenders to wealth carried what became known as "Philadelphia bankroll"—one $5 bill wrapped around 20 $1 bills to give an impression of bulky affluence.

Today a well-to-do man rarely carries around a bankroll big enough to make a mouse gag. Anyone who flashes large bills is regarded as a crude and illiterate showoff, more to be laughed at pityingly than censured.

Money simply isn't money any more. A penny, once the bright shrine of childhood, is simply a nuisance, useful only in paying nuisance sales taxes, the bane of the present day.

Other coins have been similarly downgraded. The half dollar piece has practically disappeared from circulation, and you can go weeks or months without seeing one.

Dimes and nickels haven't much purpose now except to be shoved into machines that dispense coffee or candy bars. The quarter has suffered the most dismal fate of all. You can hardly tell one from a nickel, and it will hardly even buy what a nickel did at one time.

Worst of all is what has happened to the almighty dollar. It seems to be stricken by an incurable pernicious anemia, and its strength visibly ebbs year by year. About all you can buy for one is a shoeshine and a thin magazine.

Yes, let us sing a sad song today for what has happened to money. It has fallen upon evil, evil times. Purchase a suit in a department store and offer to pay for it with cash, and the salesman stares down his nose at you as if you were a hermit or an uncouth pariah. He takes the cash in his reluctant fingers as if it were infected and would soil him.

Money has been replaced by the charge account, the checkbook and the credit card. A man's status today depends upon the number of credit cards he carries in his wallet; if he has fewer than three you can figure he is probably receiving public assistance of some kind.

Of course, here and there some recalcitrant fuddy-duddies are still saving money, hoarding it in baskets in the basement or hiding it in crotch holes in backyard elm trees. They think that money, like the South, will rise again.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — We have below - ground basement windows surrounded by window wells, and these windows are constantly being splashed with mud and dirt during heavy rainstorms. Is there any remedy for this?

A. — Dig out about three or four inches of soil, and replace with an equal amount of clean gravel. This will prevent mud from spattering your windows and will also expedite drainage during wet days.

Q. — How can I improve the appearance of decorative stuffed birds?

A. — Try rubbing gently over the surface with a slice of bread, which will usually pick up the dust and grime without injury to the feathers.

Q. — How can I clean glass baking dishes that have become browned?

A.—By soaking them in a strong solution of borax and water.

Q. — How can I drill holes in glass?

A. — You can do this with an ordinary steel drill, keeping the point of contact saturated with camphorated oil, turpentine, or mineral spirits. Don't exert too much pressure. . .let the drill do the work!

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — We have below - ground basement windows surrounded by window wells, and these windows are constantly being splashed with mud and dirt during heavy rainstorms. Is there any remedy for this?

A. — Dig out about three or four inches of soil, and replace with an equal amount of clean gravel. This will prevent mud from spattering your windows and will also expedite drainage during wet days.

Q. — How can I improve the appearance of decorative stuffed birds?

A. — Try rubbing gently over the surface with a slice of bread, which will usually pick up the dust and grime without injury to the feathers.

Q. — How can I clean glass baking dishes that have become browned?

A.—By soaking them in a strong solution of borax and water.

Q. — How can I drill holes in glass?

A. — You can do this with an ordinary steel drill, keeping the point of contact saturated with camphorated oil, turpentine, or mineral spirits. Don't exert too much pressure. . .let the drill do the work!

'A Cute Couple'

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Man, 91, Woman, 77, To Wed

LISBON — "They were a cute couple," marriage license clerk Karen Shaw said Tuesday noon of applicants James W. Brown, 91, Alliance carpenter, and Stella Wright, 77, Wellsville housewife.

They met last summer and plan to be married May 18 at her trailer home near No. 16 School, Wellsville RD 1. Both have been married once and appear in excellent health.

Mrs. Wright was formerly Stella Clutter of New Cumberland. Eight of her 10 children are living. She has 72 grandchildren, 66 great - grandchildren and 41 great - great grandchildren.

Mr. Brown was born in Ravenswood, W. Va., and helped build "a thousand houses. . . and I'm getting ready to build another one pretty soon." He said he also worked as a blacksmith and cook.

He resided in Lisbon and held the elective office of Center Township constable before moving to Alliance 23 years ago. He resides at 1740 Eastmore St. He had seven children and has three daughters living. There are 22 grandchildren, 48 "greats" and six "great - greats."

He is a member of the Alliance Church of the Nazarene. Mrs. Wright is a member of Liberty Temple at Hollow Rock. Her minister, the Rev. Nettie Hawk of Riverside Ave., Wellsville, will perform the marriage ceremony.

The couple was accompanied yesterday by Mrs. Wright's daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Shinn, who lives near her mother.

Recreation Levy Wins By 444 In Voting At Salem

SALEM — Salem voters gave overwhelming approval at Tuesday's election to a new half-mill levy to provide about $21,000 a year for parks and recreation purposes.

With a victory margin of 444 votes, the final tabulation on the issue showed:

For The Levy	679
Against Levy	235

The levy would replace a similar tax for the same purpose which was ruled invalid earlier in 1969 by Common Pleas Court at Lisbon. It will be in effect five years.

Salem already was collecting a half - mill parks and recreation tax when its voters approved a new levy for the same purpose in 1967. The County Budget Commission said the second levy could not be collected on the tax duplicate because state law limits taxes for recreational purposes to a half mill. The commission's ruling was upheld by the court.

Car And Bus Damaged In Broadway Collision

An auto and a transit bus were damaged in a collision Tuesday on Broadway, police reported.

The mishap involved a 1954 model transit bus driven by Joseph Woolley, 41, of 1918 Harvey Ave. and a 1969 model auto operated by Walter Kell, 67, of Huston Pl.

Woolley told police he was driving south on Broadway when Kell backed from a parking spot and hit the bus. Kell reported the bus hit his car. There was damage to the right rear of the bus and the left rear of the auto.

Board Will Meet

SALINEVILLE — The advisory board of the Southern Local Community Center will meet Thursday at 7 p. m. All residents of the school district are urged to attend. Children still may be enrolled for the "Head Start" summer program, officials said.

Shafer Gets Community Courts Bill

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate has passed and sent to Gov. Shafer a Community Court bill labeled a "judicial monstrosity" by an Allegheny County lawmaker.

"I think it would be a terrible mistake to pass this bill," Sen. Thomas F. Lamb, a Democrat, told his fellow senators Tuesday before they passed the measure, 29-17.

"This (bill) would do exactly the opposite of what the framers of the new constitutional article had in mind."

The new judiciary article of the state constitution permits voters to decide by special elections whether they want to retain the minor judiciary system or replace it with a community court.

The Allegheny lawmaker and Sen. Clarence D. Bell, R-Delaware, were upset because the bill, as Bell put it, "replaces the local court system with a county court system."

Bell said the House had destroyed the community court concept by establishing the requirement that there be one judge for 75,000 persons, instead of 50,000, as the Senate recommended.

He added that the bill further was weakened because the judges would be elected at large, another House change from the original Senate version. The Senate bill would have allowed judges to be elected solely by the people they would serve.

Bell voted for the bill Tuesday, but Lamb voted against it.

Plans Continued For Newlin Event

Announcement was made that nominations are open for officers until the next meeting Monday night at 8. The election will be held May 19 from 1 to 8 p.m.

Bill Jackson's Combo will play for dancing Saturday night from 10 to 1 a. m. County Council will be held Friday at 8 p.m. at Salineville.

McDowell Blanks Twins

By The Associated Press

Ken Harrelson was way off in Cleveland when the Hawk swooped down on Detroit Tuesday night.

This Hawk is named Bob "Hawk" Taylor and, while he hasn't made his mark in baseball like Ken "Hawk" Harrelson, he was a wealthy bird long before Harrelson captured the public's fancy.

The "other" Hawk flapped his wings Tuesday night and walloped a towering three-run homer with two out in the ninth inning, capping a five-run explosion that powered the expansion Kansas City Royals past the Detroit Tigers 7-6 and sent the defending world champions reeling to their fourth consecutive defeat.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Chicago White Sox edged Baltimore and Cleveland nipped Minnesota by 1-0 scores, Oakland whipped Washington 4-1, Boston clobbered Seattle 12-2 and the New York Yankees squeaked by California 2-1.

Hawk Taylor was among the first of the big money bonus babies when he signed with the Milwaukee Braves in 1957 for more than $100,000 as a highly touted young catcher.

"Dad put a glove in my hand when I was 4 years old," he recalled at the time. "From that day on he had one purpose in mind—to prepare me for the major leagues. Later, when I was a little older, my two uncles, Ben and Jack Taylor, who had played briefly in the majors, joined Dad in working with me. They taught me everything I know.

"My father and uncles got together and decided I ought to become a catcher. They reasoned that since there were very few good catchers around, that would be the position where I could move up faster."

"That ain't moving up," cracked the Dodgers' star catcher, Roy Campanella. "He's starting at the top."

Taylor never made it big, although he sat on the Milwaukee bench for three seasons. He spent some time with the Mets and Angels but mostly he was a minor leaguer until the Royals grabbed him in the minor league draft last December.

"I just want to do anything to help the ballclub," the 30-year-old Taylor said after his game-winning blow helped wipe out a 6-2 Detroit lead behind Denny McLain that included homers by Jimmie Price and Don Wert. Lou Piniella connected for Kansas City.

Manager Joe Gordon said he doesn't have any plans to use Taylor regularly, adding: "We don't use him much because we're trying to develop our two young catchers. He's a good catcher and good pinch hitter, but we're trying to bring a lot of the kids along."

The White Sox gave Don Gutteridge his first victory as new manager Joe Horlen stopped the Orioles on five hits. Chicago scored against Jim Palmer in the third on a two-out walk to Sandy Alomar, stolen base and Luis Aparicio's single.

"No matter who's managing, the White Sox always play the same," said Gutteridge. "My first win and it's ulcers. I hope Al Lopez left some of his pills around."

Cleveland's Sam McDowell pitched his second consecutive three-hit shutout and made Tony Horton's seventh-inning home run stand up for the Indians' victory, ending Minnesota's eight-game winning streak. It was only the fourth triumph in 22 games for the Indians.

Gibson Shuts Out Giants

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Gibson blew out the candles on Willie Mays' birthday cake and Jim Hicks helped himself to the frosting.

Gibson spoiled Mays' 38th birthday party and Hicks preserved Gibson's 39th career shutout Tuesday as the St. Louis Cardinals trimmed San Francisco 3-0 for their second victory in 13 home games this season.

Mays, who brought a .356 batting average to Busch Stadium and was given a cake by the Cardinals before the game, struck out twice and then departed in the fourth inning with a pulled muscle in his back.

Right fielder Hicks rescued Gibson in the fifth with two throws that cut down San Francisco baserunners, and the Cards' ace went on to toss a five-hitter for his first 1969 shutout.

Elsewhere, in the National League's first inter-division action this year, the New York mets blasted Cincinnati 8-1; Philadelphia nipped Houston 5-4; Montreal slipped past Atlanta 4-3; San Diego topped Pittsburgh 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs slammed Los Angeles 7-1.

East Division clubs won five of the six meetings—with San Diego's victory the exception.

Gibson, the NL's most valuable player last season, when he finished 22-9 with 13 shutouts and a league record ERA of 1.12, went into Tuesday night's game with a 2-2 mark after five starts.

He surrendered two singles and a walk in the second inning, survived three more singles in the fifth, with Hicks' help, and then retired the last 12 Giants he faced, finishing with eight strikeouts. The whitewash lowered his ERA to 1.94.

Hal Lanitr opend the Giants' fifth with a single and Bobby Bonds lined a one-out single to right. But Hicks' throw to second caught Lanier rounding the bag and Bonds was tagged out in a rundown. Lanier got back to second on the play, then tried to score on Ron Hunt's single to right. But Hicks cut him down at the plate with another strong throw.

Joe Torre's single and Mike Shannon's ground out delivered two St. Louis runs in the first inning after Lanier's two-base error and a single by Curt Flood. The Cards added a run in the sixth against loser Ray Sadecki on a walk and singles by Shannon and Tim McCarver.

Cincinnati's Jim Maloney and Houston's Don Wilson, who pitched no-hitters on successive nights in their previous outings, were tagged for hits by the first batters they faced at New York and Philadelphia. Bill Stoneman, who tossed a no-hitter for Montreal April 17, also gave up a leadoff hit at Atlanta.

Maloney and Wilson escaped with no-decisions as the Mets cuffed the Reds with four homers and the Phils downed the Astros on a ninth inning blast by rookie Don Money. Stoneman staggered through six innings and squared his record at 3-3 when Floyd Wicker's pinch single in the seventh delivered two runs, bringing the Expos from behind.

The Mets' Don Cardwell pitched a six-hitter, struck out eight and clubbed a three-run homer on the way to his first triumph after four setbacks. Rookie Wayne Garrett and Cleon Jones connected against loser Nolan Ryan in the sixth, breaking a 1-1 tie. Cardwell's 15th career home climaxed a five-run eighth inning wrapup against Wayne Granger.

Maloney gave up a leadoff double by Rod Gaspar and two more hits, including Ken Boswell's homer, before leaving the game after five innings with pulled groin muscle.

Larry Hisle opened the Phils' first against Wilson with a double and scored on John Briggs' single. The Phils scored three more runs in the third, finishing Wilson and grabbing a 4-1 lead, but the Astros rallied for three in the eighth, tying it on Curt Blefary's two-run double.

Money then broke the knot with a leadoff homer in the bottom of the ninth off Dooley Womack.

Stoneman yielded a leadoff single by Felipe Alou in the first and trailed 3-1 going into the seventh. But Mack Jones homered, two errors and a passed ball set up Expo runners on second and third and Wicker, batting for Stoneman, stroked his go-ahead single off Ron Reed.

The Padres knocked out Steve Blass with a four-run first inning salvo keyed by Clarence Gaston's two-run triple, then held off Pittsburgh behind left-hander Dick Kelley, who scattered eight hits before leaving for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Home runs by Al Spangler and Randy Hundley powered the Cubs past the Dodgers and Don Sutton, who went into the game with a string of 25 scoreless innings and left under fire in the sixth, to be charged with his 11th loss in as many lifetime decisions against Chicago.

Ken Holtzman flipped a six-hitter, boosting his record to 4-1.

Midland holds only two of its own track records, in the 100-yard dash and the high jump.

Rod Alston turned in a 6-3¼ long jump in 1964 and Willie Vaughn a 9.9 100 10 years previously. Vaughn's mark is in danger tonight from another Midland athlete, Roy Walker. Walker, at the MAC meet Friday, was timed in 9.8,9.8 and 9.85 by the three timers. Under timing rules, this has to be a 9.9 This time equalled Walker's best, but with good weather he could do a 9.8 and erase Vaughn's name from the books.

Midland may set another record in the 880 relay. The current mark is 1:33.9 and the Leopards have done 1:33.3 this season. Other marks theatened are in the 220, where New Brighton's Bob Newman has done a: 21.8 compared to the mark of :22.3, and in the discus, where Bill Dvorzak of Freedom goes after his own mark of 178-0.

ED FLEMING, who appeared here the last two years as the head basketball coach of Westinghouse High, has been named an assistant coach at Point Park College. Fleming a former star at Niagara and player in the NBA with Rochester, also has appeared at the M.A. as a player in various tournaments.

Darrell Brown, the 6-5 center and top player on Westinghouse this past season, has accepted a scholarship to Maryland U.

KEN WLCEK of Center Twp. has accepted a basketball scholarship to St. Francis. Wleck led Center to the WPIAL Class B finals.

Luke Witte, Marlington's 6-11 ace, has accepted a basketball scholarship to Ohio State, where he will join Allan Hornyak on the freshman team. Rumors persist that a third all-stater, Canton McKinley's Nick Weatherspoon, will also enroll at OSU.

SHUTOUT SAM. Indian Manager Alvin Dark congratulates pitcher Sam McDowell after McDowell had blanked Minnesota 1-0 in Cleveland last night for his second straight shutout. (UPI Telephoto)

McDowell Blanks Twins

By The Associated Press

Ken Harrelson was way off in Cleveland when the Hawk swooped down on Detroit Tuesday night.

This Hawk is named Bob "Hawk" Taylor and, while he hasn't made his mark in baseball like Ken "Hawk" Harrelson, he was a wealthy bird long before Harrelson captured the public's fancy.

The "other" Hawk flapped his wings Tuesday night and walloped a towering three-run homer with two out in the ninth inning, capping a five-run explosion that powered the expansion Kansas City Royals past the Detroit Tigers 7-6 and sent the defending world champions reeling to their fourth consecutive defeat.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Chicago White Sox edged Baltimore and Cleveland nipped Minnesota by 1-0 scores, Oakland whipped Washington 4-1, Boston clobbered Seattle 12-2 and the New York Yankees squeaked by California 2-1.

Hawk Taylor was among the first of the big money bonus babies when he signed with the Milwaukee Braves in 1957 for more than $100,000 as a highly touted young catcher.

"Dad put a glove in my hand when I was 4 years old," he recalled at the time. "From that day on he had one purpose in mind—to prepare me for the major leagues. Later, when I was a little older, my two uncles, Ben and Jack Taylor, who had played briefly in the majors, joined Dad in working with me. They taught me everything I know.

"My father and uncles got together and decided I ought to become a catcher. They reasoned that since there were very few good catchers around, that would be the position where I could move up faster."

"That ain't moving up," cracked the Dodgers' star catcher, Roy Campanella. "He's starting at the top."

Taylor never made it big, although he sat on the Milwaukee bench for three seasons. He spent some time with the Mets and Angels but mostly he was a minor leaguer until the Royals grabbed him in the minor league draft last December.

"I just want to do anything to help the ballclub," the 30-year-old Taylor said after his game-winning blow helped wipe out a 6-2 Detroit lead behind Denny McLain that included homers by Jimmie Price and Don Wert. Lou Piniella connected for Kansas City.

Manager Joe Gordon said he doesn't have any plans to use Taylor regularly, adding: "We don't use him much because we're trying to develop our two young catchers. He's a good catcher and good pinch hitter, but we're trying to bring a lot of the kids along."

The White Sox gave Don Gutteridge his first victory as new manager Joe Horlen stopped the Orioles on five hits. Chicago scored against Jim Palmer in the third on a two-out walk to Sandy Alomar, stolen base and Luis Aparicio's single.

"No matter who's managing, the White Sox always play the same," said Gutteridge. "My first win and it's ulcers. I hope Al Lopez left some of his pills around."

Cleveland's Sam McDowell pitched his second consecutive three-hit shutout and made Tony Horton's seventh-inning home run stand up for the Indians' victory, ending Minnesota's eight-game winning streak. It was only the fourth triumph in 22 games for the Indians.

Gibson Shuts Out Giants

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Gibson blew out the candles on Willie Mays' birthday cake and Jim Hicks helped himself to the frosting.

Gibson spoiled Mays' 38th birthday party and Hicks preserved Gibson's 39th career shutout Tuesday as the St. Louis Cardinals trimmed San Francisco 3-0 for their second victory in 13 home games this season.

Mays, who brought a .356 batting average to Busch Stadium and was given a cake by the Cardinals before the game, struck out twice and then departed in the fourth inning with a pulled muscle in his back.

Right fielder Hicks rescued Gibson in the fifth with two throws that cut down San Francisco baserunners, and the Cards' ace went on to toss a five-hitter for his first 1969 shutout.

Elsewhere, in the National League's first inter-division action this year, the New York mets blasted Cincinnati 8-1; Philadelphia nipped Houston 5-4; Montreal slipped past Atlanta 4-3; San Diego topped Pittsburgh 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs slammed Los Angeles 7-1.

East Division clubs won five of the six meetings—with San Diego's victory the exception.

Gibson, the NL's most valuable player last season, when he finished 22-9 with 13 shutouts and a league record ERA of 1.12, went into Tuesday night's game with a 2-2 mark after five starts.

He surrendered two singles and a walk in the second inning, survived three more singles in the fifth, with Hicks' help, and then retired the last 12 Giants he faced, finishing with eight strikeouts. The whitewash lowered his ERA to 1.94.

Hal Lanitr opend the Giants' fifth with a single and Bobby Bonds lined a one-out single to right. But Hicks' throw to second caught Lanier rounding the bag and Bonds was tagged out in a rundown. Lanier got back to second on the play, then tried to score on Ron Hunt's single to right. But Hicks cut him down at the plate with another strong throw.

Joe Torre's single and Mike Shannon's ground out delivered two St. Louis runs in the first inning after Lanier's two-base error and a single by Curt Flood. The Cards added a run in the sixth against loser Ray Sadecki on a walk and singles by Shannon and Tim McCarver.

Cincinnati's Jim Maloney and Houston's Don Wilson, who pitched no-hitters on successive nights in their previous outings, were tagged for hits by the first batters they faced at New York and Philadelphia. Bill Stoneman, who tossed a no-hitter for Montreal April 17, also gave up a leadoff hit at Atlanta.

Maloney and Wilson escaped with no-decisions as the Mets cuffed the Reds with four homers and the Phils downed the Astros on a ninth inning blast by rookie Don Money. Stoneman staggered through six innings and squared his record at 3-3 when Floyd Wicker's pinch single in the seventh delivered two runs, bringing the Expos from behind.

The Mets' Don Cardwell pitched a six-hitter, struck out eight and clubbed a three-run homer on the way to his first triumph after four setbacks. Rookie Wayne Garrett and Cleon Jones connected against loser Nolan Ryan in the sixth, breaking a 1-1 tie. Cardwell's 15th career home climaxed a five-run eighth inning wrapup against Wayne Granger.

Maloney gave up a leadoff double by Rod Gaspar and two more hits, including Ken Boswell's homer, before leaving the game after five innings with pulled groin muscle.

Larry Hisle opened the Phils' first against Wilson with a double and scored on John Briggs' single. The Phils scored three more runs in the third, finishing Wilson and grabbing a 4-1 lead, but the Astros rallied for three in the eighth, tying it on Curt Blefary's two-run double.

Money then broke the knot with a leadoff homer in the bottom of the ninth off Dooley Womack.

Stoneman yielded a leadoff single by Felipe Alou in the first and trailed 3-1 going into the seventh. But Mack Jones homered, two errors and a passed ball set up Expo runners on second and third and Wicker, batting for Stoneman, stroked his go-ahead single off Ron Reed.

The Padres knocked out Steve Blass with a four-run first inning salvo keyed by Clarence Gaston's two-run triple, then held off Pittsburgh behind left-hander Dick Kelley, who scattered eight hits before leaving for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Home runs by Al Spangler and Randy Hundley powered the Cubs past the Dodgers and Don Sutton, who went into the game with a string of 25 scoreless innings and left under fire in the sixth, to be charged with his 11th loss in as many lifetime decisions against Chicago.

Ken Holtzman flipped a six-hitter, boosting his record to 4-1.

Retzlaff Top Choice

League Pressure Fails To Deter Tose's Hiring

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pete Retzlaff got the job as general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles, but apparently his past almost deprived him of the job.

Eagles' owner Leonard Tose denies it, but a source close to Tose said the National Football League tried to keep Retzlaff from getting the G.M. post.

"There was no interference from Commissioner Pete Rozelle's office," said Tose, who last week paid $16,155,000 for the Eagles.

"I talked yesterday (Monday) to Rozelle and asked his approval for appointing Pete," Tose said at the news conference announcing Retzlaff's appointment. "Rozelle said, 'He's approved and good luck to you.'"

The source disclosed that the league office through various emissaries tried to dissuade Tose from hiring Retzlaff. Tose was adamant. He felt the $16.1 million gave him the right to select the general manager he felt could develop a championship football team.

"I chose Retzlaff because of his executive ability his desire to win, his knowledge of football, and he's the kind of man I want to be associated with," Tose said. "I was thinking of Pete since December," long before it was public that Tose had made a deal with Jerry Wolman to purchase the Eagles.

The league's disenchantment with Retzlaff goes back to Pete's playing days with the Eagles. In addition to making the all-league team and playing in five pro bowl games during 11-seasons as one of the top pass receivers in league history, Retzlaff served two terms as president of the NFL Players Association.

In his association capacity, Retzlaff fought the commissioner's office and the owners for better health insurance, and pensions, more exhibition game pay and other benefits. He described the merger agreement between the NFL and American Football League as "...a disgrace."

Retzlaff Top Choice

League Pressure Fails To Deter Tose's Hiring

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pete Retzlaff got the job as general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles, but apparently his past almost deprived him of the job.

Eagles' owner Leonard Tose denies it, but a source close to Tose said the National Football League tried to keep Retzlaff from getting the G.M. post.

"There was no interference from Commissioner Pete Rozelle's office," said Tose, who last week paid $16,155,000 for the Eagles.

"I talked yesterday (Monday) to Rozelle and asked his approval for appointing Pete," Tose said at the news conference announcing Retzlaff's appointment. "Rozelle said, 'He's approved and good luck to you.'"

Nonpareil Club Plans For Fete

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club festival, to be held June 9-14, was discussed at the meeting of the club at Headpin Lanes last night.

Tickets, which can be purchased at a discount before June, are available at Humble stations, Midway Oil, Robin and Sant's, Matheny Boat Shop, Heimie's, Sevy's Drug, Glenmoor Superette, Marty's Drug and Kelly and Cohen.

Big 8 championship patches for the East Liverpool High basketball team were purchased for $61.94. The treasurer's report showed $834.77. President Tom Sullivan was in charge of the meeting. The next meeting will be the first Tuesday of September.

Bastille Day, celebrated on July 14, is a French holiday equivalent to our Fourth of July.

Bowersock Wins Fourth At Waterford

Young Gary Bowersock, a product of East Liverpool, won his fourth career victory last night at Waterford Park when he drove Gay Saint to a photo finish tally in the feature race over the lightly regarded Carolina Fly. Pet For Me was a tiring third in the six - furlong dash.

Gay Saint, held in lukewarm favor, paid $11.20, $8.20 and $5.60 across the board. Carolina Fly, who closed at 35-1, was worth $25.40 and $9.60, while Pet For Me rewarded $5.80.

Pet For Me and Noble Band vied for the early lead, but Bowersock got Gay Saint rolling in the stretch to take command a sixteenth out. When it appeared as if Gay Saint would win off, Carolina Fly came on again and just missed on the wire.

Pines Delight, $4.00 winner of the first, and Mission Clove, $4.40 winner of the second, combined for a popular 7-10 Daily Double worth $10.60.

Howard Hoops Hurt

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — Greg Howard, 6-9 New Mexico basketball star, hit 16 of 18 field goal attempts when the Lobos walloped New Mexico State, 86-66, at Las Cruces, Jan. 29.

When the two teams met in Albuquerque, Howard made 9 of 10 field goal attempts. New Mexico won that game 68-66.

Follansbee Downs Bears On Late HR

John Dudash hit a two - run homer in the last of the sixth to win his own ballgame as Follansbee nipped Oak Glen 3-2 on the winner's field last night.

Gary Masters, on in relief of Vic Reed, retired the first two Follansbee batters in the sixth, but Debacko singled and Budash, relieving Bill Commisso, slugged a homer.

Oak Glen had scored in the first without a hit. Pat Clutter was hit by a pitch and scored on a sacrifice and two errors. In the fourth Oak Glen took a 2-1 lead when Masters walked, Albert Still singled and Frank Amedeo doubled.

The loss was the sixth straight for the Bears, all on the road, since an opening home win.

Nonpareil Club Plans For Fete

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club festival, to be held June 9-14, was discussed at the meeting of the club at Headpin Lanes last night.

Tickets, which can be purchased at a discount before June, are available at Humble stations, Midway Oil, Robin and Sant's, Matheny Boat Shop, Heimie's, Sevy's Drug, Glenmoor Superette, Marty's Drug and Kelly and Cohen.

Big 8 championship patches for the East Liverpool High basketball team were purchased for $61.94. The treasurer's report showed $834.77. President Tom Sullivan was in charge of the meeting. The next meeting will be the first Tuesday of September.

Bastille Day, celebrated on July 14, is a French holiday equivalent to our Fourth of July.

Bowersock Wins Fourth At Waterford

Young Gary Bowersock, a product of East Liverpool, won his fourth career victory last night at Waterford Park when he drove Gay Saint to a photo finish tally in the feature race over the lightly regarded Carolina Fly. Pet For Me was a tiring third in the six - furlong dash.

Gay Saint, held in lukewarm favor, paid $11.20, $8.20 and $5.60 across the board. Carolina Fly, who closed at 35-1, was worth $25.40 and $9.60, while Pet For Me rewarded $5.80.

Pet For Me and Noble Band vied for the early lead, but Bowersock got Gay Saint rolling in the stretch to take command a sixteenth out. When it appeared as if Gay Saint would win off, Carolina Fly came on again and just missed on the wire.

Pines Delight, $4.00 winner of the first, and Mission Clove, $4.40 winner of the second, combined for a popular 7-10 Daily Double worth $10.60.

Howard Hoops Hurt

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — Greg Howard, 6-9 New Mexico basketball star, hit 16 of 18 field goal attempts when the Lobos walloped New Mexico State, 86-66, at Las Cruces, Jan. 29.

When the two teams met in Albuquerque, Howard made 9 of 10 field goal attempts. New Mexico won that game 68-66.

On The TV Beat

By Cecil Smith

What's It All About, Leslie Uggams?

It is relatively easy to tell the Ilson from the Chambers of Ilson-Chambers Productions. I think of them as The Hair Above and The Hair Below. Saul Ilson wears a thick, Kennedyesque mop above the eyes; Ernie Chamgers has little above, but a luxuriant beard below.

Cecil Smith

Also, it is relatively easy to see why CBS in its desperation to fill the hour vacated by the firing of the Smothers Bros. would turn to Ilson-Chambers. It was Saul and Ernie who launched the Smothers on Sunday nights, who built the show in the two years they were in charge into the only successful opposition CBS has ever given to "Bonanza," knocking the venerable Western off the top rung of the ratings. And the Smothers' troubles developed after Ilson and Chambers had left.

-:-

AND ALTHOUGH the writing-producing team had come a cropper with their exercise in social satire, "What's It All About, World?" they'd produced some potent specials along the way, notable "Carol Channing Presents the Seven Deadly Sins" and "Francis Albert Sinatra Does His Thing."

"We talked with CBS about several personalities we might build a show around," said Ernie, "and we suggested Leslie Uggams as the best bet."

"She's young and pretty and bright," said Saul. "She has a big following. She carried a dog of a Broadway show called 'Hallujar Baby!' on her shoulders and kept it running for a year."

-:-

"THE EMPHASIS will be contemporary, but not social comment in the manner that World was social comment," said Ernie, adding: "Yet having Leslie Uggams up front is a social comment in itself."

At the moment, the partners are exploring what Leslie Uggams is all about. They're squiring her around town and holding endless conferences with her, probing her life, her beliefs, her ideas, her inner core—believing that a show built around a star must reflect the inner personality of that star.

It's complx research. Someone once asked how Leslie could play a Negro "when she's never been one."

-:-

SHE CAME OUT of a solid middle-class family with no ghetto hangups; she was playing on Broadway at 6 with Ethel Waters; she attended good schools, became famous as a teen-ager as the sugary sweet young singer on the Mitch Miller Show; she strove mightily to crack that image with a sexy nightclub act, singing the songs Mitch wouldn't let her sing, and wound up a Broadway star with a Central Park West apartment, a Wall Street broker husband (white), a gigantic Great Dane named Thor.

Ilson and Chambers say they face exactly the opposite problem with Leslie Uggams they had with the Smothers Bro.

"Tom and Dick had a young people following but the older audience didn't know them, so we booked on stars that older people follow like Jack Benny, Jim Nabors, George Burns to widen the audience," said Saul.

-:-

"LESLIE from the Mitch Miller Show has a following in the older audience, so we want to book young people's stars as guests, like Donovan, Noel Harrison, Bobbie Gentry, to bring in the young," said Ernie.

"There'll be social satire, but not to the extent of the Smothers," said Saul. "When we started doing biting social satire with Tom and Dick, it was a new way to go. They'd never made social comment before. But we were on the air as as a midseason replacement; CBS had no faith in the show; they'd planned on replacing it. We had to try something no one was doing."

"Now as 'What's It All About, World?' proves, too many shows have gone that way and audiences have turned against it," said Ernie.

-:-

"WHAT WE WANT to do is situation-comedy sketches, perhaps with a repertory cast, out of the black experience — not Julia so much as 'A Raisin in the Sun,'" said Saul.

"But we don't expect," said Ernie, "any kind of as new a concept as we had with the Smothers."

"If we find one," said Saul, "it'll be by accident."

Ohio Voters Finally OK Some Vital School Levies

By The Associated Press

Ohio voters finally approved several crucial school tax issues Tuesday, but disaster struck a number of other districts.

Over-all, about half of more than 100 school levy proposals on the ballots were approved.

In Youngstown, where schools were closed the last month of 1968 because the system ran out of money, voters gave solid approval to a 12-mill operating levy. The vote was 27,244-20,459.

Voters in the wealthy Shaker Heights district of suburban Cleveland, where the financial situation was described as critical, approved a 39.2 mill levy—31.3 renewal and 7.9 in new millage.

At Mogadore in Summit County, faced with the prospect of closing down its schools for lack of funds, voters renewed a 10.4 mill levy and approved an additional 8 mills.

And the Perry Local District in Lake County, which closed its schools for one month last year, received the go - ahead from voters for an 8.9 mill renewal levy.

But school levies considered essential in Parma, Cuyahoga Falls, Lancaster and Newark didn't fare as well.

Parma voters rejected a 9.4 mill levy. Officials there have said schools probably would have to be closed in October if the issued failed.

In Cuyahoga Falls, near Akron, voters rejected by nearly a 2-1 margin a 15 mill additional levy that was up for a vote the second time. The earlier work stoppage by teachers who were denied pay increases.

Lancaster citizens turned down for the third time a 6.5 new levy.

And at Newark, where officials have said more funds are "absolutely essential" to continue existing programs, voters defeated a 7.5 mill proposal.

More than half of the levies up for decision Tuesday were requests for additional millage. Others were levy renewals and the remainder a combination of both.

In addition, 46 districts put bond issues totaling $97.3 million bond issues for school construction before the voters. These seemed to fare even less well than the levy proposals.

The largest, a $12.5 million bond issue in Lorain which called for a 3.4 mill tax increase, was defeated 6,194-4,137.

Returns on the school issues were being compiled by the Ohio Education Association, which said it hoped to have complete results rounded up sometime today.

The largest project is a $1,945,000 sewage treatment plant and system northwest of Wintersville.

Rackoff & Associates of Columbus, consulting engineers, will review the bids and submit recommendations to the commissioners in 10 days. The recommendations will be forwarded to HUD officials for approval, Commissioner Michael Blischak said.

Contest Won By Springer At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — In the only race in Tuesday's Republican primary here, Mrs. Eula L. Springer won nomination for a new term as city treasurer, the post to which she was named in December following the death of Charles Gandy.

Mrs. Springer, widow of Frank W. Springer, a widely-known attorney, defeated Kersey E. McCloskey Jr. of 329 W. North Ave., who is in charge of the loan department at the New Waterford Bank and is in the last year of a four-year term on the East Palestine board of education.

The complete, unofficial tabulation showed:

Mrs. Springer	330

Mrs. Springer resides at 640 W. North Ave. The present term will run out Dec. 31 and the new term will be for four years. Mrs. Springer once worked as a legal secretary. She is a member of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church and the Order of Eastern Star.

Davis had just returned on a month's leave Tuesday night. He is scheduled to return to Fort Lewis, Washington.

Hancock County Sheriff's deputies said the investigation is not complete.

On The TV Beat

By Cecil Smith

What's It All About, Leslie Uggams?

It is relatively easy to tell the Ilson from the Chambers of Ilson-Chambers Productions. I think of them as The Hair Above and The Hair Below. Saul Ilson wears a thick, Kennedyesque mop above the eyes; Ernie Chamgers has little above, but a luxuriant beard below.

Cecil Smith

Also, it is relatively easy to see why CBS in its desperation to fill the hour vacated by the firing of the Smothers Bros. would turn to Ilson-Chambers. It was Saul and Ernie who launched the Smothers on Sunday nights, who built the show in the two years they were in charge into the only successful opposition CBS has ever given to "Bonanza," knocking the venerable Western off the top rung of the ratings. And the Smothers' troubles developed after Ilson and Chambers had left.

-:-

AND ALTHOUGH the writing-producing team had come a cropper with their exercise in social satire, "What's It All About, World?" they'd produced some potent specials along the way, notable "Carol Channing Presents the Seven Deadly Sins" and "Francis Albert Sinatra Does His Thing."

"We talked with CBS about several personalities we might build a show around," said Ernie, "and we suggested Leslie Uggams as the best bet."

"She's young and pretty and bright," said Saul. "She has a big following. She carried a dog of a Broadway show called 'Hallujar Baby!' on her shoulders and kept it running for a year."

-:-

"THE EMPHASIS will be contemporary, but not social comment in the manner that World was social comment," said Ernie, adding: "Yet having Leslie Uggams up front is a social comment in itself."

At the moment, the partners are exploring what Leslie Uggams is all about. They're squiring her around town and holding endless conferences with her, probing her life, her beliefs, her ideas, her inner core—believing that a show built around a star must reflect the inner personality of that star.

It's complx research. Someone once asked how Leslie could play a Negro "when she's never been one."

-:-

SHE CAME OUT of a solid middle-class family with no ghetto hangups; she was playing on-Broadway at 6 with Ethel Waters; she attended good schools, became famous as a teen-ager as the sugary sweet young singer on the Mitch Miller Show; she strove mightily to crack that image with a sexy nightclub act, singing the songs Mitch wouldn't let her sing, and wound up a Broadway star with a Central Park West apartment, a Wall Street broker husband (white), a gigantic Great Dane named Thor.

Ilson and Chambers say they face exactly the opposite problem with Leslie Uggams they had with the Smothers Bro.

"Tom and Dick had a young people following but the older audience didn't know them, so we booked on stars that older people follow like Jack Benny, Jim Nabors, George Burns to widen the audience," said Saul.

-:-

"LESLIE from the Mitch Miller Show has a following in the older audience, so we want to book young people's stars as guests, like Donovan, Noel Harrison, Bobbie Gentry, to bring in the young," said Ernie.

"There'll be social satire, but not to the extent of the Smothers," said Saul. "When we started doing biting social satire with Tom and Dick, it was a new way to go. They'd never made social comment before. But we were on the air as as a midseason replacement; CBS had no faith in the show; they'd planned on replacing it. We had to try something no one was doing."

"Now as 'What's It All About, World?' proves, too many shows have gone that way and audiences have turned against it," said Ernie.

-:-

"WHAT WE WANT to do is situation-comedy sketches, perhaps with a repertory cast, out of the black experience — not Julia so much as 'A Raisin in the Sun,'" said Saul.

"But we don't expect," said Ernie, "any kind of as new a concept as we had with the Smothers."

"If we find one," said Saul, "it'll be by accident."

Ohio Voters Finally OK Some Vital School Levies

By The Associated Press

Ohio voters finally approved several crucial school tax issues Tuesday, but disaster struck a number of other districts.

Over-all, about half of more than 100 school levy proposals on the ballots were approved.

In Youngstown, where schools were closed the last month of 1968 because the system ran out of money, voters gave solid approval to a 12-mill operating levy. The vote was 27,244-20,459.

Voters in the wealthy Shaker Heights district of suburban Cleveland, where the financial situation was described as critical, approved a 39.2 mill levy—31.3 renewal and 7.9 in new millage.

At Mogadore in Summit County, faced with the prospect of closing down its schools for lack of funds, voters renewed a 10.4 mill levy and approved an additional 8 mills.

And the Perry Local District in Lake County, which closed its schools for one month last year, received the go - ahead from voters for an 8.9 mill renewal levy.

But school levies considered essential in Parma, Cuyahoga Falls, Lancaster and Newark didn't fare as well.

Parma voters rejected a 9.4 mill levy. Officials there have said schools probably would have to be closed in October if the issued failed.

In Cuyahoga Falls, near Akron, voters rejected by nearly a 2-1 margin a 15 mill additional levy that was up for a vote the second time. The earlier work stoppage by teachers who were denied pay increases.

Lancaster citizens turned down for the third time a 6.5 new levy.

And at Newark, where officials have said more funds are "absolutely essential" to continue existing programs, voters defeated a 7.5 mill proposal.

More than half of the levies up for decision Tuesday were requests for additional millage. Others were levy renewals and the remainder a combination of both.

In addition, 46 districts put bond issues totaling $97.3 million bond issues for school construction before the voters. These seemed to fare even less well than the levy proposals.

The largest, a $12.5 million bond issue in Lorain which called for a 3.4 mill tax increase, was defeated 6,194-4,137.

Returns on the school issues were being compiled by the Ohio Education Association, which said it hoped to have complete results rounded up sometime today.

Jefferson County Opens Bids For 7 Public Projects

STEUBENVILLE — Jefferson County commissioners Tuesday opened bids for construction of five water and two sewer projects in various parts of the county.

The bids total $4,780,228, with the apparent low bidder on four of the projects being Nardei Co. of Bridgeville, Pa. Thirty - one offers were submitted on the projects, for which a $1.5 million grant has been authorized by the Housing and Urban Development administration.

The largest project is a $1,945,000 sewage treatment plant and system northwest of Wintersville.

Rackoff & Associates of Columbus, consulting engineers, will review the bids and submit recommendations to the commissioners in 10 days. The recommendations will be forwarded to HUD officials for approval, Commissioner Michael Blischak said.

Number Of Hijackings Of Planes Has Declined

MIAMI (AP) — Airliner hijackings to Cuba, an almost daily occurence early in 1969, have dwindled sharply and government officials say they hope the sky piracy is on its last legs—or wings.

The hijackings of a National Airlines passenger plane Monday was the first since April 14, and the first over this country since March 25.

In January alone, 11 planes were hijacked.

The figure dropped to five each in February and March, and to three in April.

"It's possible the fad has died out," J. M. Frazier, head of the Federal Aviation Administration's Miami area office, said Tuesday.

"We know there's been a decline in the hijackings but we don't really know why.

"On April 1st we did issue posters to airlines and tourist counters warning that airline hijacking is a federal crime punishable by death. But whether this has played a part in the decrease is anybody's guess."

The posters, in bold black, red and blue letters, also warn that carrying concealed weapons aboard an aircraft is punishable by prison and fines and that passengers and baggage are subject to search.

Another device to cut down the hijackings is a new weapons-detection machine which Frazier said was being used at selected airports around the country. The machine can detect objects made of metal.

Another informed source noted that potential hijackers might have been discouraged by reports filtering out of Cuba that their kind are given less than a hero's welcome.

"Or it could be that the airlines are more alert to potential hijackers and are screening them more heavily," he said. "Or maybe the kooks no longer find it the novelty they once did."

Fidel Castro said last month he still won't turn away anyone who pirates a plane for the purpose of obtaining political asylum.

In Christian art, the book in the hands of St. Stephen represents the Old Testament.

PTO Inducts New Officers At Wellsville

Mrs. Irene LaClair assumed the presidency of the MacDonald Parent - Teacher Organization at the final meeting until October Monday night in the Wellsville school.

Other officers installed by Mrs. Natalie Lewis were: Mrs. Angie Stacey, first vice president; John Mackov, second vice president; Mrs. Iwilla Handley, secretary, and Mrs. Barbara Buchanan, treasurer.

Mrs. Lewis presented a gift to Mrs. Helen Martin, outgoing president, on behalf of the PTO and she, in turn, presented the gavel to the new president.

Mackov, principal, announced that there are more students needed for kindergarten registration for MacDonald and Garfield schools. Parents interested are requested to call the schools for information.

A donation of $25 was made to the Newlin Memorial Fund.

It was announced that the treasurer's books will be audited at a later date and that a three-way traffic light purchased by the PTO has been installed.

Committee appointments announced were: Mrs. Mary Ann Elliott and Mrs. Joyce Elliott, membership; Mrs. Becky Russell and Mrs. Linda Householder, social, and Mrs. Sue Andrews and executive committee, ways and means.

Mrs. Ann Wilfing's fourth grade won the room count of parents.

In War On Hunger

Nixon Advocates Hike In Food Stamp Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, facing political pressures to escalate the war on hunger, is advocating a $1-billion annual increase in food stamp programs "to put an end to hunger in America itself for all time."

The President said he is shifting $270 million next July 1 to speed up the food stamp plan in addition to the $1.5 billion already requested for the coming fiscal year. When fully effective in mid-1970, the extra $1 billion would extend government food assistance programs to every county in the nation, Nixon said.

"That hunger and malnutrition should persist in a land such as ours in embarrassing and intolerable," Nixon said in sending his proposals to Congress with virtually no advance notice.

Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, in spelling out details of the proposal today, hoped to break down some initial skepticism of a special Senate committee on hunger headed by Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D.

An immediate critical analysis from the committee staff Tuesday contended the $270 million boost next year will not accomplish much. The staff is drafting a paper designed to show exactly what the sum would do in terms of people fed.

"It's not much in terms of what Sen. McGovern wants to do" a staff member said.

Although the administration had been reviewing the subject for some weeks, the proposals it advanced are considerably more far-reaching than many had anticipated.

Noting that the United States has been aiding starving people abroad since World War I, Nixon said, "The moment is at hand to put an end to hunger in America itself for all time."

If Congress adopts the administration's recommendations, the full impact would not be felt until 13 months hence. At that time, the federal government's antihunger drive would cost $2.5 billion annually.

The immediate impact on the federal budget would not be great, however. Nixon proposed to finance the start of the expanded program in the 1970 fiscal year that begins July 1 by shifting $275 million from other accounts. This would provide $270 million for food stamps and $5 million for nutrition research.

Under the revised food stamp program the poor would be offered enough food stamps to purchase a balanced diet. For a family of four this would be $100 a month, compared to $58 now available under the program.

Families with a monthly income of $30 or less would receive free food stamps. And no family would have to spend more than 30 per cent of its income for such stamps, which are exchanged for foodstuffs in stores. Under the present plan, some families spend more than 50 per cent of their income for stamps.

Ohio Senate Unit Gets Pay Increase Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The case for larger pay raises for prison guards and state hospital attendants than for other state employes has been sent to a legislative jury — a Senate Finance subcommittee.

The recommendation for higher pay increases for the 9,900 nonprofessionals and professionals that provide treatment and care of inmates and patients was officially made Tuesday night by Martin A. Janis, director of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

Janis told the committee he knew it would have trouble finding the additional funds, but that he had a "responsibility" to his employes to ask for increases over and above those recommended in an administration bill.

The governor's top aide, John M. McElroy, sat in on the hearing. He said the governor would not take a position on the Janis recommendations until after the subcommittee has acted.

"There is no money to find for it," he said. "Money would have to be taken away from something else or new tax sources would have to be found."

Janis said he did not know how much additional money would have to be spent to raise salaries in his department, but that it would cost $1 million a year at the Ohio Penitentiary alone.

Janis recommended that starting salaries for prison guards be upped from $2.40 to $3 an hour and for attendants from $1.84 to $2.10 an hour.

He also proposed that salaries of other personnel, including registered nurses, custodial workers and therapists, be raised above administration recommendations.

The administration bill provides $41.5 million in wage increases and health insurance benefits.

Janis, along with superintendents of two state hospitals and one correctional institution and Maury Koblentz, correction chief presented their case before a packed hearing room.

Al Bilik, representing the State Employes Union, also testified, sticking with the union's original demand of a $1,500 across-the-board pay raise for state employes.

Koblentz said in 1968 there were 378 resignations, retirements or suspensions at the Ohio Penitentiary and 371 appointments. There is a total of 460 employes at the pen.

He said the penitentiary is now about 60 guards short and that 65 to 70 per cent are moonlighting at other jobs.

The DOCTOR Says

Cause Of Leg Cramps Termed Unkown

Q — I am 46 and have leg cramps. What could cause them? My doctor is giving me Equagesic. What is it given for? Would quinine help my cramps?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — The cause of these cramps is not known. In some persons they are due, in part at least, to pregnancy, diabetes, multiple sclerosis, varicose veins or a calcium deficiency. Removal of the cause, when possible, brings improvement. Equagesic is a combination of a tranquilizer, a muscle relaxant and a pain killer that is given to relieve or prevent cramps. Many victims have found quinine helpful. Both of these preparations should be taken only under medical supervision.

Q — I am 67 and am taking dicalcium phosphate with viosterol for leg cramps. It used to give me relief but it no longr does so. Is there a better treatment?

A — Over 50 drugs have been recommended for muscular cramps. This is proof that no single remedy is uniformly effective. Recent reports indicate that in persons over 60 nicotinyl alcohol tarrae, a prescription drug, is often beneficial.

Q — What would cause intermittent twitching of my leg muscles? It is not painful. My doctor gave me a tranquilizer for it but this had no effect. What treatment would you advise?

A — Twitching of small bundles of muscle fibers may be caused by general fatigue, chronic nervous tension, arthritis, poor circulation, fallen arches or excessive use of tobacco or coffee. If one or more of these causative factors is present, drugs will not help you until the cause is removed. After that, if a tranquilizer alone does not give relief a combination of a tranquilizer and muscle relaxant should be tried.

Q — My husband had Duguglielmo's disease. What causes it? Can it be cured?

A—This is a rare form of leukemia. The cause is unknown but is probably a virus. No cure has as yet been found.

New ABM Report Seen Helpful To Plan's Foes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators on both sides of the controversy over the antiballistic missile—ABM—system say publication of a detailed opposition report suggested by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy could help foes of the Nixon administration Safeguard proposal.

The report concluded: "The system, even if considerably expanded and upgraded over the years following initial deployment, cannot perform effectively the missions suggested for it."

Simultaneously, the American Security Council issued a report which concluded: "An American ABM system is the soundest insurance for peace and against war that the United States can buy in 1969, for the 1970s."

The report which said the ABM would be ineffective came Tuesday from Profs. Abram Chayes of Harvard Law School and Jerome Wiesner of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Chayes was legal adviser to the State Department and Wiesner was science advisor to President John F. Kennedy.

Speaking for the Pentagon, Dr. John S. Foster Jr., chief scientist for the Department of Defense, said the report critical of ABM contained nothing of value and was based in part on incorrect assumptions.

The American Security Council report, focusing primarily on the Soviet missile threat, was written by two scientists and retired Gen. Nathan F. Twining, former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Although Kennedy suggested the Chayes-Wiesner report and distributed copies to his fellow senators, the Massachusetts Democrat declined to hold a news conference to comment on it. "I hope you find it useful," he wrote other senators.

There have been reports that GOP opponents have asked Kennedy to stay in the background of the fight, lest it become a partisan dispute between the Republican President and the man considered a front-runner to be his Democratic opponent in 1972.

But Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N. Y., said the critical report "could be very effective" with undecided senators. The undecided group numbered 10 in the most recent Associated Press survey which showed 47 senators against and 43 for Safeguard.

"The weight of the scientific evidence is overwhelming," Javits said.

Sen. Peter Dominick, R-Colo., listed as an ABM supporter, said he thinks the 344-page Chayes-Wiesner report will influence the debate.

Favoring ABM with Gen. Twining in the ASC study were Dr. Willard Libby, a former member of the Atomic Energy Commission and a Nobel Prize winner in chemistry, and Prof. William J. Thaler of Georgetown University's physics department.

Man Cleared In Theft Case

LISBON — Oren E. Liber Jr., 29, of Lisbon was acquitted of a charge of grand larceny late Tuesday morning by a Common Pleas Court jury.

The state claimed Liber stole $275 from the wallet of Elmer Harroff at Harroff's home in New Waterford on or about Aug. 26.

Harroff testified he was working in his garden when the defendant came into the yard and asked to use his bathroom. Harroff said he looked into his wallet in the clothes chest the next morning and discovered $275 had been taken.

He said he did not know Liber by name, but had seen him once before and was able to identify him from photographs shown by the sheriff. Harroff told the jury he is sure Liber took the money.

The jury deliberated 40 minutes.

One of the highest - flying birds in the world is the condor, a large American vulture. This bird has the ability to withstand variations of air pressure that would kill many other creatures, and it easily soars from sea level to an altitude of 16,000 or more feet.

The DOCTOR Says

Cause Of Leg Cramps Termed Unkown

Q — I am 46 and have leg cramps. What could cause them? My doctor is giving me Equagesic. What is it given for? Would quinine help my cramps?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — The cause of these cramps is not known. In some persons they are due, in part at least, to pregnancy, diabetes, multiple sclerosis, varicose veins or a calcium deficiency. Removal of the cause, when possible, brings improvement. Equagesic is a combination of a tranquilizer, a muscle relaxant and a pain killer that is given to relieve or prevent cramps. Many victims have found quinine helpful. Both of these preparations should be taken only under medical supervision.

Q — I am 67 and am taking dicalcium phosphate with viosterol for leg cramps. It used to give me relief but it no longr does so. Is there a better treatment?

A — Over 50 drugs have been recommended for muscular cramps. This is proof that no single remedy is uniformly effective. Recent reports indicate that in persons over 60 nicotiny! alcohol tarrae, a prescription drug, is often beneficial.

Q — What would cause intermittent twitching of my leg muscles? It is not painful. My doctor gave me a tranquilizer for it but this had no effect. What treatment would you advise?

A — Twitching of small bundles of muscle fibers may be caused by general fatigue, chronic nervous tension, arthritis, poor circulation, fallen arches or excessive use of tobacco or coffee. If one or more of these causative factors is present, drugs will not help you until the cause is removed. After that, if a tranquilizer alone does not give relief a combination of a tranquilizer and muscle relaxant should be tried.

Q — My husband had Diguglielmo's disease. What causes it? Can it be cured?

A—This is a rare form of leukemia. The cause is unknown but is probably a virus. No cure has as yet been found.

New ABM Report Seen Helpful To Plan's Foes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators on both sides of the controversy over the antiballistic missile—ABM—system say publication of a detailed opposition report suggested by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy could help foes of the Nixon administration Safeguard proposal.

The report concluded: "The system, even if considerably expanded and upgraded over the years following initial deployment, cannot perform effectively the missions suggested for it."

Simultaneously, the American Security Council issued a report which concluded: "An American ABM system is the soundest insurance for peace and against war that the United States can buy in 1969, for the 1970s."

The report which said the ABM would be ineffective came Tuesday from Profs. Abram Chayes of Harvard Law School and Jerome Wiesner of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Chayes was legal adviser to the State Department and Wiesner was science advisor to President John F. Kennedy.

Speaking for the Pentagon, Dr. John S. Foster Jr., chief scientist for the Department of Defense, said the report critical of ABM contained nothing of value and was based in part on incorrect assumptions.

The American Security Council report, focusing primarily on the Soviet missile threat, was written by two scientists and retired Gen. Nathan F. Twining, former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Although Kennedy suggested the Chayes-Wiesner report and distributed copies to his fellow senators, the Massachusetts Democrat declined to hold a news conference to comment on it. "I hope you find it useful," he wrote other senators.

There have been reports that GOP opponents have asked Kennedy to stay in the background of the fight, lest it become a partisan dispute between the Republican President and the man considered a front-runner to be his Democratic opponent in 1972.

But Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N. Y., said the critical report "could be very effective" with undecided senators. The undecided group numbered 10 in the most recent Associated Press survey which showed 47 senators against and 43 for Safeguard.

"The weight of the scientific evidence is overwhelming," Javits said.

Sen. Peter Dominick, R-Colo., listed as an ABM supporter, said he thinks the 344-page Chayes-Wiesner report will influence the debate.

Favoring ABM with Gen. Twining in the ASC study were Dr. Willard Libby, a former member of the Atomic Energy Commission and a Nobel Prize winner in chemistry, and Prof. William J. Thaler of Georgetown University's physics department.

Man Cleared In Theft Case

LISBON — Oren E. Liber Jr., 29, of Lisbon was acquitted of a charge of grand larceny late Tuesday morning by a Common Pleas Court jury.

The state claimed Liber stole $275 from the wallet of Elmer Harroff at Harroff's home in New Waterford on or about Aug. 26.

Harroff testified he was working in his garden when the defendant came into the yard and asked to use his bathroom. Harroff said he looked into his wallet in the clothes chest the next morning and discovered $275 had been taken.

He said he did not know Liber by name, but had seen him once before and was able to identify him from photographs shown by the sheriff. Harroff told the jury he is sure Liber took the money.

The jury deliberated 40 minutes.

One of the highest - flying birds in the world is the condor, a large American vulture. This bird has the ability to withstand variations of air pressure that would kill many other creatures, and it easily soars from sea level to an altitude of 16,000 or more feet.

The reindeer is the only deer species that has been successfully domesticated.

Junior Editors Quiz on ROCKETS

QUESTION: Why does a rocket need more fuel going up and coming down than when in orbit?

* * *

ANSWER: The huge rockets (1) which put astronauts into orbit around the earth must have tremendous power to overcome gravity and build up necessary speed. The rockets are large because so much fuel must be used. As it thunders up, various stages of the rocket fire their engines and drop away, leaving only the little cone at the very top to continue the flight. This is the part which contains the astronauts and which circle the earth. For a capsule to orbit, it must be above 100 miles up and be traveling at least 18,000 miles an hour (2). Such speed gives it centrifugal force, making it spin outwards, thus balancing gravity, which tends to pull it down. The capsule does not need fuel to keep up this speed, which results from the final push of the rocket. In space, there is no air to slow an object once it is in motion. To come down, the capsule fires pitch and yaw jets to turn itself around and retrorockets to slow its speed, slanting it toward the earth (3). Coming down (4), little fuel is needed, since gravity is pulling the capsule down and air friction is slowing it up.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Need Emergency Rinse?

DEAR HELOISE: I wonder if anyone has ever tried fabric softener as an emergency cream hair rinse.

Heloise

I nearly panicked one day when I found that I was out of cream rinse, so I decided to try the softener.

I put one tablespoon of softener in a gallon of water and poured over my hair.

My hair is now so squeaky-clean, fresh smelling and absolutely soft!

This is really great in an emergency.

BEVERLY.

-:-

That's a real Jim-dandy of In fact, the directions for your very hint are on the box! Guess we gals should read the fine print more often, eh?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is a good suggestion for the home gardener.

Save your empty pill bottles! When you use just part of a packet of seeds and want to save the rest, store them in those empty pill bottles!

Remove the original label and put a piece of masking tape to label the bottle.

This is ideal to store your seeds because they are not scattered and they stay dry.

CINDY LAWRENCE.

—:—

DEAR HELOISE: I have read your article "Salt Can Save Rug From Untrained Dog" and most heartily agree that this method is excellent.

In your instructions you stress the importance of cleaning your vacuum after picking up the salt to avoid rusting the machine.

I would like to add this.

—:—

Instead of vaccuming up all the salt, spoon it into a dust pan or piece of paper and only use the vacuum to recover that portion which remains in the carpet. This will make it easier to clean the vacuum, and should it not be cleaned right away, the small amount then recovered would not be sufficient to do much harm to the machine.

Hope you find this suggestion of interest.

MR. M. MILTON BAKER.

DEAR HELOISE: Instead of paying high prices for garment bags to store blankets, winter clothing and spreads . . . buy some of those heavy-duty thirty-gallon plastic trash can liners with the twist closures.

They hold a multitude of out-of-season clothes or three or four blankets at a time.

These are very inexpensive and really solve my storing problem.

AN AVID FAN.

Letter Of Laughter

DEAR HELOISE: I am the mother of a year-old toddler, and I care for a small baby five days a week. This is enough to keep anyone hopping, but me especially, as I am a bit slow in doing things.

Whenever I think to do it, I quickly jot down a list of my planned activities for the day. This list includes every task that I intend to do during the day.

By the end of the day I can look at the marked-off list and feel a sense of accomplishment, even if the house is again in shambles.

It may sound silly, but it really does work. And maybe this little hint may help other "down-in-the-dumps" girls.

WILMA LONG.

—:—

DEAR HELOISE: Don't discard that bottle warmer and the large-mouth baby bottles after your baby is older and no longer has use for them.

They can be taken along on trips and used in your motel room to heat chocolate milk, water for tea or coffee, or even soup.

Take as many bottles as you have people.

No, we didn't use the nipples — drank right from the bottle! - MRS. E. MANGUS

Tunnels For Ore

JERUSALEM — Tunneling technology has been traced back to the Bronze Age, about 3500 B.C., when copper ore was mined from passageways driven into mountains of the Sinai Peninsula. Then, and for many centuries later, the standard tunneling method was to drive wooden wedges into the rock, which split after the wedges, soaked with water, expanded.

Fortas Probe In New Twist

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal grand jury now meeting in Cleveland will look into a documents incident involving Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas' former law firm, it has been learned authoritatively.

The pending probe, kicked off by the Justice Department, centers on documents found last summer in a safe at Arnold & Porter in the wake of a jewelry theft.

Fortas had long left the prestigious Washington law firm to go on the Supreme Court. His wife, tax attorney Carolyn Agger, is a partner. Otherwise, the investigation appears to have no direct relation to the justice who severed connections with the law firm in October 1965.

Still, it serves to train additional attention on Fortas, under severe attack since Life Magazine disclosed Sunday night that while on the court he had been tendered a fee by the family of industrialist Louis E. Wolfson.

The documents were thought missing when they were subpoenaed in a price-fixing investigation by the Justice Department from Irwin Fruchtman, a Toledo steel executive and a client of the firm.

They were found by police last August when Arnold & Porter offices were ransacked and robbed. The intruders took $22,160 of Mrs. Fortas' jewelry and $944 in cash.

Fruchtman was indicted last summer and sentenced in September to a year and a day in prison, for obstructing justice and destroying subpoenaed documents.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I prevent sausages from losing their shape when frying?

A. — By placing them in a pan of cold water, and bringing to a boil before frying.

Q. — What about the care and cleaning of black - tiled floors?

A. — This type of floor is quite a job to keep clean. Even water spots show. But if you'll try using a liquid window spray on this tile. I think you'll be pleased at how the tile will sparkle without a streak.

Q. — How can I clean black lace?

A. — Put into alcohol, and churn up and down until the liquid foams. If the lace is very dusty, repeat this operation, squeezing the lace out, slapping between the hands, pulling out the edges, and then laying it between brown paper smooth and straight. Leave under a weight until dry.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Need Emergency Rinse?

DEAR HELOISE: I wonder if anyone has ever tried fabric softener as an emergency cream hair rinse.

Heloise

I nearly panicked one day when I found that I was out of cream rinse, so I decided to try the softener.

I put one tablespoon of softener in a gallon of water and poured over my hair.

My hair is now so squeaky-clean, fresh smelling and absolutely soft!

This is really great in an emergency.

BEVERLY.

-:-

That's a real Jim-dandy of In fact, the directions for your very hint are on the box! Guess we gals should read the fine print more often, eh?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is a good suggestion for the home gardener.

Save your empty pill bottles! When you use just part of a packet of seeds and want to save the rest, store them in those empty pill bottles!

Remove the original label and put a piece of masking tape to label the bottle.

This is ideal to store your seeds because they are not scattered and they stay dry.

CINDY LAWRENCE.

—:—

DEAR HELOISE: I have read your article "Salt Can Save Rug From Untrained Dog" and most heartily agree that this method is excellent.

In your instructions you stress the importance of cleaning your vacuum after picking up the salt to avoid rusting the machine.

I would like to add this.

—:—

Instead of vaccuming up all the salt, spoon it into a dust pan or piece of paper and only use the vacuum to recover that portion which remains in the carpet. This will make it easier to clean the vacuum, and should it not be cleaned right away, the small amount then recovered would not be sufficient to do much harm to the machine.

Hope you find this suggestion of interest.

MR. M. MILTON BAKER.

DEAR HELOISE: Instead of paying high prices for garment bags to store blankets, winter clothing and spreads . . . buy some of those heavy-duty thirty-gallon plastic trash can liners with the twist closures.

They hold a multitude of out-of-season clothes or three or four blankets at a time.

and really solve my storing problem.

AN AVID FAN.

Letter Of Laughter

DEAR HELOISE: I am the mother of a year-old toddler, and I care for a small baby five days a week. This is enough to keep anyone hopping, but me especially, as I am a bit slow in doing things.

Whenever I think to do it, I quickly jot down a list of my planned activities for the day. This list includes every task that I intend to do during the day.

By the end of the day I can look at the marked-off list and feel a sense of accomplishment, even if the house is again in shambles.

It may sound silly, but it really does work. And maybe this little hint may help other "down-in-the-dumps" girls.

WILMA LONG.

—:—

DEAR HELOISE: Don't discard that bottle warmer and the large-mouth baby bottles after your baby is older and no longer has use for them.

They can be taken along on trips and used in your motel room to heat chocolate milk, water for tea or coffee, or even soup.

Take as many bottles as you have people.

No, we didn't use the nipples — drank right from the bottle! - MRS. E. MANGUS

Tunnels For Ore

JERUSALEM — Tunneling technology has been traced back to the Bronze Age, about 3500 B.C., when copper ore was mined from passageways driven into mountains of the Sinai Peninsula. Then, and for many centuries later, the standard tunneling method was to drive wooden wedges into the rock, which split after the wedges, soaked with water, expanded.

Fortas Probe In New Twist

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal grand jury now meeting in Cleveland will look into a documents incident involving Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas' former law firm, it has been learned authoritatively.

The pending probe, kicked off by the Justice Department, centers on documents found last summer in a safe at Arnold & Porter in the wake of a jewelry theft.

Fortas had long left the prestigious Washington law firm to go on the Supreme Court. His wife, tax attorney Carolyn Agger, is a partner. Otherwise, the investigation appears to have no direct relation to the justice who severed connections with the law firm in October 1965.

Still, it serves to train additional attention on Fortas, under severe attack since Life Magazine disclosed Sunday night that while on the court he had been tendered a fee by the family of industrialist Louis E. Wolfson.

The documents were thought missing when they were subpoenaed in a price-fixing investigation by the Justice Department from Irwin Fruchtman, a Toledo steel executive and a client of the firm.

They were found by police last August when Arnold & Porter offices were ransacked and robbed. The intruders took $22,160 of Mrs. Fortas' jewelry and $944 in cash.

Fruchtman was indicted last summer and sentenced in September to a year and a day in prison, for obstructing justice and destroying subpoenaed documents.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I prevent sausages from losing their shape when frying?

A. — By placing them in a pan of cold water, and bringing to a boil before frying.

Q. — What about the care and cleaning of black - tiled floors?

A. — This type of floor is quite a job to keep clean. Even water spots show. But if you'll try using a liquid window spray on this tile. I think you'll be pleased at how the tile will sparkle without a streak.

Q. — How can I clean black lace?

A. — Put into alcohol, and churn up and down until the liquid foams. If the lace is very dusty, repeat this operation, squeezing the lace out, slapping between the hands, pulling out the edges, and then laying it between brown paper smooth and straight. Leave under a weight until dry.
